HEBREW LETTER OF THE MONTH OF KISLEV

This month's letter reish is the twentieth letter of the Hebrew alef-bet. It is the first letter of the name Rivkah who gives birth to two sons in our beginning portion this month. It is also in the name of Sarah, Avraham's wife, Yitzchak's mother and Rivkah's mother in law. Reish makes a sound somewhat similar to our English "r" but is partly rolled, and partly swallowed. You make it with the back of your tongue. It is a fun letter to sound out, and like a Spanish or French "r" sound really tasks the speakers pronunciation skills, especially when we find it in the middle or the end of a word. Reish is a fricative, and guttural sound, and there is evidence that it even has a second sound because we find in the Bible that it sometimes has a dagesh. There are a lot of interesting words that begin with the letter reish. Look at the names of the things that start with the letter reish. We can learn by tracing the letter with our finger and saying the sound of 'reish' aloud. Then look at the items that begin with it; you can read the names aloud and run your finger underneath the letters as you read. Remember that Hebrew, is read from right to left.

Oh, Be Careful

Oh, be careful little eyes what you see
Oh, be careful little eyes what you see
There's a Father up above
And He's looking down in love So, be careful little eyes what you see

Oh, be careful little feet where you go
Oh, be careful little feet where you go
Our Abba's up above
And He's leading us with love
So, be careful little feet where you go

Oh, be careful little ears what you hear
The Father's up above
And He's hearing us with love
So, be careful little ears what you hear

Oh, be careful little mouth what you say
Oh, be careful little mouth what you say
Yeshua is above
And He's speaking out His love
So, be careful little mouth what you say

Oh, be careful little hands what you do
Our Father's up above and

He's showing us His love So, be careful little hands what you do

[6]she said to her son Ya'akov, "Listen! I heard your father telling 'Esav your brother, [7]'Bring me game, and make it tasty, so I can eat it. Then I will give you my blessing in the presence of Adonai, before my death.' [8]Now pay attention to me, my son; and do what I tell you. [9]Go to the flock, and bring me back two choice kids. I will make it tasty for your father, the way he likes it; [10]and you will bring it to your father to eat; so that he will give his blessing to you before his death." [11]Ya'akov answered Rivkah his mother, "Look, 'Esav is hairy, but I have smooth skin. [12]Suppose my father touches me — he'll know I'm trying to trick him, and I'll bring a curse on myself, not a blessing!" [13]But his mother said,
"Let your curse be on me.
Just listen to me, and go get me the kids!"
