Zechariah Meets an Angel Mad Libs

(Based on Luke 1:5-22)

Zechariah was _____ into the temple to ("ing" verb)

_____, when a(n) _____ _____
(verb) (adjective) (noun)

of the Lord appeared to him. The _____ of the Lord
(noun)

told the _____ Zechariah that his wife was going to have (emotion)

a(n) _____ and his name would be _____.
(animal) (boy's name)

Zechariah was so _____ he did not believe the (emotion)

_____ _____ of the Lord.
(adjective) (noun)

So the _____ of the Lord told him he would not (noun)

_____ again until his son was born.
(verb)

MARY'S SCARE MAD LIBS

(Based on Luke 1:26-38)

Mary was in (her) _____ _____ to (place) ("ing" verb)

God, when suddenly a(n) _____ of the Lord
(noun #1)

appeared. The _____ _____of the Lord (adjective) (noun #1)

told Mary not to be _____. God was going to (emotion)

bless Mary with a(n) _____ _____
(adjective) (adjective)

_____. Mary's baby would be the Savior of the world.
(noun)

She was so _____ she _____ all the (emotion) (past tense verb)

way home and told her _____ (adjective)

_____ the good news.
(plural noun)

WE'RE GOING TO BETHLEHEM MAD LIBS

(Based on Luke 2:1-7)

_____ years ago _____
(number higher than 1) (famous person's name)

issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire

_____ _____. Everyone had to (adjective) (plural noun)

_____ to _____ to register.
(verb) (place)

So Joseph went from _____ to _____ to (place) (place)

register because he was related to _____.
(famous person's name)

He went there with _____ who was expecting a (girl's name)

_____ pretty soon. While they were there, the time for (noun)

the _____ to be born came and she gave birth to (noun)

a _____. She wrapped him in _____ and (noun) (plural noun)

laid him in a _____ because there was no room for them (noun)

at _____.
(name of a restaurant)

SHEPHERDS ON THE HUNT MAD LIBS

(based on Luke 2:8-16)

There were in the hills some _____ shepherds
(adjective)

watching their _____ at night outside the city of (plural animal)

_____. As they were _____ their (place) ("ing" verb)

_____, some angels appeared, and the angels were (plural animal)

_____. The shepherds were very _____.
("ing" verb) (emotion)

The _____ angels told them about a baby born in (adjective)

a(n) _____. The _____ shepherds were so (place) (adjective)

_____ they _____ all the way to (emotion) (past tense verb)

_____.
(place)

MAGI VISIT JESUS MAD LIBS

(based on Matthew 2:1-12)

After Jesus was born in a(n) _____ in _____,
(noun) (place)

some _____ magi _____ to worship him.
(adjective) (past tense verb)

The magi _____ after a _____ for a (past tense verb) (noun)

long time. When the _____ magi got to Jerusalem they (adjective)

went and talked to _____. The _____ (person #1's name) (emotion)

magi asked _____ where they could find the new (person #1's name)

_____. King Herod got very _____.
(noun) (emotion)

He told the magi that he did not know where the _____ (noun)

was, but when they found the _____ _____,
(adjective) (noun)

they should tell the king, so he could worship him also.