LIVE LIKE PAUL

When the apostle Paul was beaten for preaching the Gospel he would say "I count the suffering of this world as nothing compared to the glory that waits!"

When he was threatened with being put in prison, he could say "Go ahead. I will teach the soldiers and guards about Jesus!"

When they threatened to kill him, he could say "Great! to be absent from the body is to be with Christ!"

And when they threatened to let him live, Paul could say, "Fantastic! For me to live is Christ!"

Live like Paul.

So we may boldly say: "The Lord is my helper, I will not fear. What can man do to me?"

WHY WE SING IN CHURCH

"...speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody with your heart to the Lord" (Ephesians 5:19).

Darryl Tippens has written a booklet called, That's Why We Sing. At the beginning of the booklet, he writes: "When I think of my most memorable moments in church, the times I have felt closest to God, almost always they involve hymns." He goes on to say that "all kinds of (spiritual songs) have affected me deeply, and permanently." And he adds: "I have come to see that I am not exceptional in this respect. In fact, the number of people who have been radically changed by sacred song is quite large."

I, personally, was drawn to the Lord's Church because of the singing of that fine congregation of people. Over the years, I have worshiped at churches throughout the U.S., Canada and the UK. And often, what I recall the most about those worship services is the singing. In some, the heartfelt response to God's grace was evident. It permeated every syllable of each word as it was sung to the Lord. So as I reflect on the singing of God's church, I note:

Singing connects us to God. I believe that there is a deep longing in every soul to be connected to God. Blaise Pascal described it as a "God-shaped vacuum"—A God-shaped hole in every soul that only God can fill. We find this longing throughout the Bible. For instance, David wrote: "My soul longs, indeed it faints for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh sing for joy to the living God" (Psalms 84:2). One of the things Christians have to offer people (as they search for God) is hymn singing. Our hymns inspire devotion, repentance, sorrow, joy, and reverence.

Singing has the power to change us. Augustine is considered by many to be the greatest theologian of the fourth century A.D. In one of his writings, he tells how singing played a major role in his decision to become a Christian. Addressing God in his Confessions, the great theologian writes: "How I wept during your hymns and songs! I was deeply moved by the music of the sweet chants of your Church. The sounds flowed into my ears and the truth was distilled into my heart. This caused the feelings of devotion to overflow. Tears ran, and it was good for me to have that experience."

So as you go to worship this Sunday, remember to offer the fruit of your lips as a sweet sacrifice to God (Hebrews 13:15).
