EXODUS CATECHISM

What is Exodus about?

Moses wrote the Book of Exodus to the second generation of Israelites to prepare them to be a royal priesthood and holy nation as they entered the promised land.

The outline for Exodus is as follows:

- 1-18 – Exodus from Egypt
- 19-40 – Covenant at Mt Sinai

What do we learn from the Exodus from Egypt (chapters 1-18)?

That God will fulfill His covenant promises; that He will defeat and humiliate those who stand against His purposes; that He will plant His people in the land to show that He is King. The Lord is King!

What do we learn from the Covenant at Mt Sinai (chapters 19-40) in regards to the law?

In chapters 19-24 we learn that Israel has been saved from bondage to live under the law in order to show the nations how to love God and neighbor.

What do we learn from the Covenant at Mt Sinai (chapters 19-40) in regards to God dwelling with Israel?

In chapters 25-40 we learn that God will come and dwell with Israel, establishing His glory in and through them, even though they are hardhearted.

How does Exodus help us live in Christ?

It prepares us to live as a royal priesthood and holy nation through the greater exodus and new covenant that we receive in Jesus the Christ. Jesus delivers us from bondage to Satan and sin, makes us God's dwelling place on earth, and leads us to a greater inheritance in which all the world is His dwelling place. The Lord is King!
