A FIRM FOUNDATION CONDUITS FOR CHRIST

Colossians 3:12-17

Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all this put-on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

1. Our identity is found in Christ and we are dearly loved. How does this understanding change you, and motivate you to treat others better?
2. What is a conduit?
How are we a conduit for Christ?
How can we better distribute the characteristics of Christ toward those around us?
3. Discuss the idea of love being a bonding agent for the rest of the characteristics mentioned above.
4. What can hinder you from being a true conduit for Christ?
5. If you view everything you do this week as done "all in the name of the Lord Jesus", what would you need to change in your daily life?
6. What is the theme of Colossians?
Who is the author?
Why was this letter written?
7. How can we let the peace of Christ rule in our hearts?
8. How can we let the word of Christ dwell in us richly?
9. Spend time thanking God for the work done within your life and for what is being done within you now.

God bless,
Daryl

In our Memorial Hall, you will find a wall with the beautiful Tree of Life that represents our church family. On this wall, we remember our loved ones who have gone before us, we celebrate new life and we honor those we love. If you would like to know more about how you can add a leaf to the Tree of Life with your own personal message, please contact our church office at office@fmcamericus.org or call (229) 924-3169.

THANK YOU!
