In spite of all we're going through right now, let the redeemed of the Lord say so.
Since we are the redeemed of the Lord, Let us say so!

Psalms 107:1-3 KJV

Every child of God needs to take a close look at who, what, when, where, and why of sharing the good news/ gospel with everyone we meet.

Enough is enough. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so.

- Who are the redeemed?
    - Acts 20:28 KJV, 1 Peter 1:18 KJV, Revelation 5:9 KJV
- What are the redeemed to say?
    - Tell the good news. Mercy and grace of God. He saved you and will save anyone who's willing.
    - Mark 5:18-19 KJV
    - Tell the good news of how the Lord has had compassion on you.
- Where should the redeemed say it?
    - Mark 16:15-20 KJV, Psalm 34:1 KJV
    - When i feel like it and when I don't
    - 1 Thessalonians 2:13 KJV
- Why should the redeemed say so?
    - Because God deserves the praise, glory, and honor. Revelation 4:11 KJV
    - Because our Lord commanded us to do so. Matthew 28:19-20 KJV
    - Because we have a testimony to tell. Your friends are more interested in what God has done for you, than they are about Paul, Peter, and John. They can see you with their own eyes and hear you with their own ears. Your testimony has power the world needs to hear what we have to say. Because of what Jesus did, we all have to say so. If you know you have been redeemed, say so, if you know you've been healed. If you know you've been delivered, say so.

It may be tough right now, it may be a strain on you right now, and you feel like you don't know what's coming next but step up and say so.
