ProLife Stance Communication Templates

Facebook copy

Launch post

Virginia voters: Question 1 is on the November 3 ballot.

This is a proposed change to Virginia's Constitution, and it deserves more than a headline. It deserves careful reading, honest questions, and respectful conversation.

Join local physicians experienced in high risk pregnancy, pastors, priests, and neighbors for a live Zoom town hall. Hear the official language, learn why local physicians are urging a No vote, and discover practical ways to support mothers, fathers, and families.

[Date] | [Time] | Free Zoom Briefing  Register: [Link]

Read the amendment. Share the facts. Vote No on Question 1.

Facebook event description

What is Virginia Question 1? Why are local physicians experienced in high risk pregnancy and faith leaders concerned? What can our communities do to protect life and support women and families?

Join a 45-minute online community town hall featuring [names/titles]. You will receive:
- A clear overview of the official ballot question
- A respectful medical and faith-based perspective
- Live Q&A
- A digital voter toolkit
- A practical pathway to serve mothers and families
- An invitation to become a Field Leader

This conversation is for people who want to be informed, compassionate, and prepared before November 3.

Register: [Link]  Official text:[Official link]

Facebook volunteer post
One informed conversation can reach an entire family, church, workplace, or neighborhood. We are looking for Field Leaders—people willing to share a short toolkit and personally invite five friends to learn about Question 1.

You do not need a large platform. You need a willingness to care, communicate, and help your neighbors make an informed vote.