

JOSEPH'S DREAMS

Genesis 37-45

Joseph is born the 11th son of a great man named Jacob

Joseph's Father favours him and gives him a special robe.

His brother's gets jealous of the special attention he gets from dad!

Joseph receives dream from God of becoming a leader and one day ruling over his brothers

He tells his dreams to his brothers but brothers decide to get rid of him permanently

One day Pharaoh has a troubling dream and needs someone to interpret it.

Joseph soon becomes the head of prisoners in jail due to his leadership abilities and God's favour.

Joseph is thrown back in Jail. Back to square one!

Joseph is sold to Potiphar and made to serve in his house but the wife falsely accuses him of sleeping with her.

Brothers throw him into a ditch for dead and later sell him to Egyptians into slavery.

Pharaoh quickly calls Joseph to interpret his dream after attempts by magicians and wise men of Egypt fail.

Joseph interprets the dream very accurately and impresses Pharaoh.

Pharaoh appoints Joseph Prime minister of Egypt

He forgives his brothers who bow down before him as Prime Minister and he saves Egypt from famine.
