Shut-In of the Week: Gene Price

Morrell Nursing Center
900 N. Marquis Hwy. Hartsville, SC 29550

Read the Bible in a Year:

Psalm 128-130; Proverbs 14:25-16:21; Ezekiel 31-45;
1 Peter 1-5;

HYMN HISTORY:

Penned by Major Daniel Webster Whittle, "There Shall Be Showers of Blessings" came to be after his experiences in the Civil War, filled with struggles and sadness, including the loss of one of his arms above the elbow. He read the New Testament cover to cover, twice. But it was not until the dying request of a young soldier to be prayed for that Whittle prayed for both the boy and himself to receive salvation, repenting of his sins first. He composed several other hymns.
