"Come, Thou Long-Expected Jesus" UMH 196

Welcome & Opening Prayer

Lighting of the Advent Candle

L: In the midst of life, we pause to breathe and release our burdens. We surround ourselves with symbols that remind us God's salvation is here, and yet we wait for it too. Candles, lights, greenery, and symbols remind us that we are people of faith, guided by the light of the world. Listen for words of hope on this First Sunday of Advent.

P: We recognize the world around us needs healing and hope.

L: So we light a candle on a circle that reminds us of the unending promise of God's love.

P: A circle full of evergreen branches that never die.

L: A circle that has olive branches that remind us of God's promise to all.

P: A promise revealed in the Messiah whose birth we are preparing for this day.

L: Let us remember salvation doesn't happen when all is right in the world. The Messiah draws near now, breaking into the present through moments of compassion and flourishing. In this season of holy waiting and wholly longing, we light the candle of hope.

All: May this light inspire all to let the light of Christ shine and reveal for all the hope we have in the promise of God whose saving grace continues to heal our world. Amen.
