Table Talk

LIE DETECTOR PART 4

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. Have you ever done the right thing and still ended up resentful because someone else seemed to get more? What did that feel like?

2. What's something you were totally fine with until you found out someone else had a better version of it?

3. Why do you think the older brother couldn't bring himself to go into the party?

4. Be honest: have you ever low-key hoped someone's big thing didn't work out quite as well as they hoped?

5. What's the difference between healthy ambition and comparison-driven striving?

6. What's the most petty comparison you've made recently — social media, job titles, someone's landscaping, a parking spot?

7. What makes it genuinely hard to celebrate someone else's win, especially when you're still waiting for yours?

8. What's something a sibling, coworker, or neighbor has that you've thought about way more than you should?

9. Is there someone in your life whose victory you need to celebrate more fully — and what's stopping you?

10. What's one thing you used to be proud of until the internet showed you someone doing it better?
