Table Talk

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT PART 1

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. What's something you spend a lot of mental energy worrying about — and has the worrying ever actually helped?

2. If your brain had a "most visited" tab, what would be open right now — and is it anything you're proud of?

3. Jesus said "you cannot serve two masters." What are the things in your life that most compete for first place?

4. Have you ever stress-spiraled about something so small that you were embarrassed to admit what it was?

5. What does it look like practically to "seek first the kingdom" on a regular Tuesday?

6. What's your signature move when you're anxious — doomscrolling, over-snacking, reorganizing something?

7. The message asked: if every Christian were as generous as you are, would the Kingdom advance, stagnate, or decline? What was your honest answer?

8. On a scale of "pretty chill" to "fully convinced disaster is imminent," where do you live most of the time?

9. What would it look like in your life to exchange worry for a kind of focused, forward-moving peace?

10. If Jesus said "look at the birds" to you specifically, which bird do you think you most resemble right now?
