Table Talk

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT PART 2

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. What's a "snare" in your life right now — something that has you stuck, even if it doesn't look dramatic from the outside?

2. What's the most elaborate way you've ever avoided doing something you knew you needed to do?

3. Proverbs compares the trapped person to a bird in a snare. What does it feel like to be caught — and what usually keeps people from moving toward freedom?

4. If the ant looked at your daily habits and had to give you an honest performance review, what would it say?

5. The message talked about assessing your season before making a plan. What season do you think you're actually in right now?

6. What's a "gazelle moment" you've had — where you had to move fast to escape a situation you got yourself into?

7. What's the difference between rest and avoidance? How do you know which one you're doing?

8. What's something you've been "about to start" for so long it's practically a personality trait?

9. What's something in your life that would change significantly if you just added more urgency to it?

10. What's your go-to excuse when you don't want to do something hard but also don't want to admit that?
