Table Talk

THE ONE THING THAT CHANGES EVERYTHING PART 3

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. Has there ever been a specific Scripture that genuinely revived you in a hard season? What was it and what was going on?

2. If you're being completely honest, what would you say currently ranks higher than Bible reading in your daily routine?

3. What do you think it looks like to actually value Scripture that highly in everyday life?

4. What's something in Scripture you've been reading and quietly delaying on for a while?

5. What does it actually look like for you to meditate on a verse — and what gets in the way of doing it consistently?

6. Which Bible story would you least want to be a character in — and which one would you most want to be in?

7. How often do you share Scripture with the people around you in everyday conversations?

8. What's the longest you've ever read the Bible in one sitting, and how did that go?

9. What's the difference between reading Scripture and actually activating it — and what makes that last step the hardest?

10. Who in your life would you least want admonishing you — and who do you actually need to hear from?