Table Talk

THE ONE THING THAT CHANGES EVERYTHING PART 5

Discussion questions and conversation starters based on this weekend's sermon!

1. Where do you find your identity, security, and sense of value most naturally — and how does that show up in your everyday decisions?

2. If Jesus showed up at your house and said "one thing you lack" — what do you think he'd point at first?

3. What do you think it means to truly follow Jesus, and how does that differ from just living morally or going to church?

4. Have you ever tried to negotiate with God? How did that go?

5. What's something in your life that you would genuinely struggle to release if God asked you to?

6. If your bank account could talk, what do you think it would say about your priorities?

7. What barriers tend to come between people and fully following Jesus — and which ones do you think are hardest to talk about in church?

8. Have you ever convinced yourself something was "wisdom" when really it was just not wanting to let go?

9. What would change in your life if you repositioned your heart fully toward eternity rather than comfort?

10. What's a purchase you've made that you immediately knew was probably not what God had in mind?
