SERMON: "SUFFICIENT: RESURRECTION AND LIFE"

JOHN 11:25

25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live.

I have been blown away at the impact this series has had on so many! I have received so many texts, calls, and messages saying that our series "SUFFICIENT" has been life-changing and has helped them grow in their understanding of Jesus and their relationship with him. I believe that God is using these messages to draw many closer to himself and to help us share the gospel with others. Pray with me that many lives will be impacted through these messages and that lives will be changed by the gospel!

This weekend, we are examining Jesus' statement that he is the "resurrection and the life." He delivers this statement in the context of the loss of his friend, Lazarus. Jesus reminds those gathered to mourn that he is the answer to the problem of death. Christ himself was not bound by death and his resurrection offers wonderful promises for us as well. Much more than something to talk about at Easter, the concept of resurrection is central to our faith.

Do you understand that Christ is our source of life? What impact does the resurrection have on our lives today? Are you saved?

WHERE DO I START?

It is our prayer that Clearview would not simply be a church that you attend, but a family to which you belong. There are many ways to get connected at Clearview. Here are some great places to start:

ATTEND a Sunday School class. We have fantastic teachers! It's also a great way to meet new people.

SERVE in a ministry. From our Kindle outreach ministry to Blaze Kids, there is a place for everyone to make Christ visible!

JOIN an Inner Circle. Small groups help you develop friendships and grow in your walk spiritually on more than just Saturday or Sunday.

For more information on specific ministries and how to get involved, contact Ryan Hill, ryanhill@clearviewbc.org.
