

"Music from the Heart"
Small Group Questions
Week of November 1, 2026

Icebreaker:
What is a song—Christian or otherwise—that has had a significant impact on you, and why?

Discussion Questions:

1. Read Psalm 96:1-13: What does it mean to say that God is worthy of our worship?

    What characteristics of God make Him worthy of our praise?

2. In Exodus 20:1–2, God reminds Israel of who He is and what He has done before giving them His commandments. How does remembering God's character and His work in our lives help us worship Him?

3. Have you ever struggled to worship God because of difficult circumstances?

    What makes worship challenging during seasons of grief, disappointment, or uncertainty?

    How can we continue to worship God even when our circumstances haven't changed?

4. What are some lesser things that can become the objects of our worship?

    How can we recognize when we are giving something more of our attention, affection, or devotion than we are giving to God?

5. Read Ephesians 5:18-19: What does it mean for singing to be both an individual act of worship and a communal act of worship?

    How does singing with the church encourage or strengthen your own faith?

    The faith of others?

6. Worship involves both our hearts and our actions. Why is it important that our outward expressions of worship reflect what is happening in our hearts?

    Do you think that you are missing something if you never use your body in worship?

7. Revelation gives us a picture of God's people worshiping Him eternally. What stands out to you about this picture of worship?

    How does knowing that worship will never end change the way you think about worship today?
