LIFE

People helping people live out the unexpected love of Jesus every day.

I am so proud of our youth! We just completed what is my 8th Disciple NOW and who knows how many total for our church… my files go back to 2008, and I am sure that wasn't the first. Can you imagine—approximately 30 years or more of intensive disciple-making weekends!

This year, the theme was specifically about discipleship, "Follow." The theme was based on Matthew 4:19, "And he said to them, 'Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.'"

Discipleship is about a relationship with Jesus ("follow me"), a relationship that transforms you ("I will make"), a relationship that invites you to continue the mission of Jesus ("fishers of men").

I was proud of a lot this year—of course, in a good way. Proud of the adults for their willingness to serve. They took their leadership duties seriously: the teaching, getting students to chime in, helping them respect each other, and facilitating fun.

One of the memorable moments was when we showed up to the service project we had registered for and learned that we needed to pivot to a totally new and unplanned mission opportunity. The adults took it well and modeled flexibility and trust in God for the students. What could have been a stressful situation turned into a great opportunity for fellowship and mentorship.

The students also did great. We had a lot of new students, and I am especially proud of the older students for taking the younger ones under their wings. During times they could sit back or plug in and participate, they generally chose participation! One sign of everyone's commitment and excitement was how well they slept the second night!

Finally, thank you, hosts, for allowing students to "invade" your home spaces. Your gifts of hospitality shined and made for a meaningful weekend for students. Thank you, Eastern Hills Baptist Church, for your support of our student ministry!
