EDITH BARNES: WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE SCRIPTURE?

Proverbs 31:29: “Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all.”

Edith attaches a sweet memory to this scripture. Imagine you are a five-year-old girl in 1930s Missouri, feeling a bit lost among five brothers and two loving but busy parents.

Then Mary becomes your neighbor. Mary, 13, takes an interest in you! She does things with and for you. She undoes the rope curls fashioned for you by mom and gives you “big-girl curls.” Later she teaches you how to put on lipstick and just a dab of make-up. She counsels you. She makes you feel special!

In Edith’s mind, before the woman of Proverbs 31 became a wife, she was a big sister named Mary. Later in Edith’s life, her surrogate sister and now sister-in-Christ did marry, and her husband was Edith’s older brother, Vernon!

The two women remained close until Mary’s death in 2008. After a full professional and personal life, including a long tenure as College Church member, Edith still tears up when she speaks of the “noble woman” sent by the providence of God.

HEY, PARENTS!

College Church has a 20-year tradition that you should know about. It’s called Lads-to-Leaders.

Lads-to-Leaders (L2L) is part of a national organization with one goal: to help congregations develop boys and girls into Christian leaders.

Whether your children are preschoolers or young adults, they can join dozens of others in Bible study, song leading, public speaking, debate, or understanding spousal and parental roles.

Michael Burchfield

Abby Guy

And you can join in too. College church parents serve as instructors, coaches, and chaperones for L2L. It’s a bit like having a small army of tutors for your child, only its mostly free and offers spiritual as well as academic growth.

L2L has the glitter of an annual convention (Memphis last year), where carefully supervised competition can bring a sense of achievement.

But its bedrock attraction is the weekly opportunity for children and parents to learn the discipline of Christian living in a supportive atmosphere.

Why not be a part of the tradition?

If you want to learn more, contact leader Brett Watson through the church directory or office.

The national website has extensive information and can be found by googling L2L.

ELDER SELECTION

Next Sunday, February 9, these men will be affirmed as shepherds for the College Church family in both morning assemblies: Jim Adams, Sherrill Bennett, David Cole, David Collins, Brad Francis, Byron Howell, Darren Mathews, Glen Metheny, Kenneth Mills, Jeff Montgomery, Barry Rucker and Tim Westbrook. Two former elders will be reaffirmed to serve: Richard Duke and Mike Justus.

ELDERS, DEACONS & MINISTERS

All elders, deacons, & ministry staff are invited to a breakfast, Saturday, February 15, from 7:30 a.m.-10:00 a.m. in the Family Room. The purpose of the breakfast is to engage these three groups in providing and gathering information that will strengthen our work together. The cost is $5 per person.
