COLLEGE
CHURCH OF CHRIST

Intentionally connected to God, His Word, His world, and to each other.

Bill White: Heart of a Servant

Our father was a multi-faceted and multi-talented man. He was a gifted physician, teacher, musician, worship leader, and devoted son, husband, father and grandfather, but perhaps the quality that stood out the most to us was his heart for serving and encouraging others.

We remember dad's awareness of and service to people who were struggling or marginalized in some way. Mark recalls his calm and loving service to the indigenous people in Oklahoma while he was stationed there as a medical resident, and this memory remains a source of pride and influence for Mark in his own work.

Laura remembers how fondly dad spoke of his work with Partners in Progress, medical missions, and programs like A Day of Caring, VBS, and particularly Caring and Sharing. He also reached out to and mentored many individuals who were lonely, or struggling with financial or health issues, often doing so without being noticed by the community at large.

Our dad was keenly aware of people who were in crisis and was determined that he could make a difference. He was a problem solver and would not rest until he had done everything possible to find solutions.

Each of us has had people tell us that dad made a real difference in their lives, whether through a medical diagnosis or through help with a personal problem. In particular, Jonathan mentions that he cannot count how many times he has heard someone call dad a "Barnabas."

Additionally, David observes that dad had an inspiring work ethic and did whatever was necessary to take care of himself, his family, his friends, and those he served through ministry or his profession.

As each of us strives to serve others, may we be emboldened by these words from Isaiah 61:1-3, and by the example of our father, Bill White:

> The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is on me, because the Lord has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives…to comfort all who mourn…to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair.

COLLEGE CHURCH COOKOUT & SINGING | JUNE 30| BERRYHILL PARK

Mark your calendar for our second Wednesday night all-church event of the summer. The College Church Cookout will be Wednesday, June 30, 6:15-8 p.m. at Berryhill Park. This event will be a time of food, fun, and fellowship. We will begin serving food at 6:15 p.m. Items on the menu will include hotdogs, chips, water, and KONA ICE! The Kona Ice Truck will be there from 6:30-8 p.m. for all the shaved ice you can enjoy!

We plan to have some fun games and a time of "church-camp style singing." Bring a lawn chair, if convenient, and join in a fun time with our church family!

We want to encourage everyone who plans to eat at the event to register using the QR code or the link below. Registering will help us make sure we have plenty of food!

THANK YOU

Thank you so much for the beautiful flower arrangement provided at my mother's funeral and for hosting the family luncheon afterwards. My mother enjoyed every one of her 73 years of membership at the College Church!

David Ozbirn, son of Jewell Ozbirn

We are so thankful for the prayers and interest on behalf of my mother, Mary Bruce, since her fall and hip surgery a month ago. She is home with family, continuing rehab, and looking forward to turning 101 in August, Lord willing!

HIS HOUSE NEEDS

His House is currently in need of towels, soup pots, and men's white socks.

NEW MEMBERS

Tim & Tammie Hacker: Tim & Tammie moved to this area last year from Memphis, TN. Their house is located on the Little Red River in Pangburn, where Tim enjoys trout fishing. Tim sold his dental business in Memphis. He is now working part-time doing dental implants here in Searcy. Tim & Tammie met while attending Harding University. They went on different campaigns together. Tammie has a few degrees, including one in Special Education. While living in Bartlett, Tennessee, she and Tim started the Barlett Christian Counseling Center.

Joe Hacker: Joe is the adult son of Tim & Tammie. He lives near his parents on the Little Red River in Pangburn. Joe loves to spend his time volunteering to help those in need. He enjoys working at His House each week. Joe is working to develop and lead a Narcotics Anonymous group that will meet at His House.

TIANNA'S VBS JOURNAL 4: THE WRAP-UP

This year's VBS was a success! We had around 110 families with 260 kids registered. Families came from the churches of Christ and from the community as well.

I got to go through VBS with my daughter during her session and see first-hand the creativity of the teachers. As VBS directors*, we give no specific instructions to our teachers other than to cover the material. What we got were resourceful people who dressed in costume, acted out stories and pulled the children in to help. They even created interactive Red Seas!

During the crafts/activities sessions, children used their own creativity: making tambourines, decorating rocks to remember Moses during the Amalekite battle, and constructing their own Ten-Commandments tablets. Together, teachers and children brought to life the biblical stories of Exodus, and created a lasting memory of God's power and providence.

From many adults, I heard how great it was to be together again. Already there is talk of what we're going to do next year. Planning will begin in just a couple of months. We hope to see you at VBS 2022!

*List of VBS 2021 Directors:

College: Kerri Behel, Heather Rollins, Tianna Tripp
Downtown: Todd Miller, Jenny Mills
Cloverdale: Rachel Grady, Katelyn Kiihnl
Westside: Kim Cooper, Laura Mulvany

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Members from Cloverdale, including Marnie Walker and Angela Sivia, animate Bible stories during VBS.

Larry & Sonia Wilks, members from Downtown, dress as Israelites to add to the story-telling at VBS.

College members, Jordan & Taylor Guy and Naomi Valentine, prepare their VBS tent.
