PRAYER: PETITION

WEEK 3 | DAYS 15 - 20 ABIDE QUESTIONS

DAY 15 (PAGE 18)

Do your prayers reflect the confidence of someone who has direct access to the Father through Jesus, or the doubt of someone who feels they must earn God's attention? What specific petition do you need to entrust to the Father today, asking boldly in Jesus' name while surrendering the outcome to His wisdom?

DAY 16 (PAGE 19)

When you petition God, are you asking Him to bless the plans you have already made or are you genuinely and sincerely seeking to align your desires with His will? How might your petitions change if your greatest desire were not simply for God to grant your requests, but for His will to be accomplished in your life?

DAY 17 (PAGE 20)

Do you treat prayer with other believers as a mere obligation, or as a meaningful opportunity to seek God together and encourage one another in faith? What might change in your relationships and your prayer life if you became more intentional about bringing your needs and the needs of others before God together?

DAY 18 (PAGE 21)

When someone entrusts you with a personal struggle, do you faithfully carry that need to God, trusting Him to work even when you cannot change the person's circumstances yourself? What is an area of your life where unconfessed sin, unresolved conflict, or a lack of accountability is hindering your walk with God that you need to bring before Him in prayer?

DAY 19 (PAGE 22)

Are your prayers primarily focused on your own needs and concerns, or do you make it a habit to intentionally bring the needs of others before God? In what ways might your heart change toward others if you began faithfully praying for their needs, struggles, and relationship with God, offering these petitions with a thankful heart?

DAY 20 (PAGE 23)

Do you strive to be spiritually alert to the needs and struggles of fellow believers, or are you so focused on your own circumstances that you miss opportunities to intercede on behalf of others? What specific prayer for a fellow believer do you need to commit to bringing before God consistently, with perseverance and faith
