

Hi friends,

Who helped you feel like you belonged?

When Bill Webster thinks back to growing up at Davison Free Methodist, he can't remember every lesson his Sunday school teachers taught. But he remembers how they treated him. He knew they cared, and that stayed with him.

This Sunday, in week three of This Is My Story, Bill will share how his faith grew through raising a family, moving halfway around the world to India, and finding his way back to the church he grew up in. Along the way, he's been learning what it means to love like Jesus and asking what he hopes the next generation will remember about us.

Join us Sunday, November 15, at 10:30 am at Davison Free Methodist Church. Whether you've been around church for years or are still figuring out what you believe, you're welcome to come hear Bill's story.
