Who is on the Throne?

So… How was your week? With the elections last Tuesday our nation seems to be in an uproar. For some the results of the elections set our country back on the right path. The craziness will now end and we can get back to being the country that our forefathers had in mind. For others Tuesday's results mark the end of sanity in our nation. All the craziness that we feared might happen is now upon us. Some of us are shouting "Victory", while others of us are fearing that the world as we know it is coming to an end. As for me, I can sleep just fine at night. Yes, many of the results were not as I had hoped. But I comfort myself with one question: Who is on the throne? Our Wednesday night class is doing a quick run through the Old Testament. When you study the Old Testament in broad strokes you realize a few things. There are good kings and there are bad kings. The people rebel and the people repent. Nations suffer and nations thrive. The only consistent thing in this world that we can hold onto is the fact that through it all God is on the throne.

The LORD is in his holy temple; the LORD is on his heavenly throne. He observes everyone on earth; his eyes examine them. Psalm 11:4

God reigns over the nations; God is seated on his holy throne. Psalm 47:8

The LORD has established his throne in heaven, and his kingdom rules over all. Psalm 103:19

You, LORD, reign forever; your throne endures from generation to generation. Lamentations 5:19

God is on the throne! So here is the real question that you need to ask yourself: Who is on your throne? If your life is guided by who wins an election, check your heart and see who is really sitting on the throne. This concept goes way beyond politics. If your mood and attitude is guided by who wins the big game, check your heart and see who is really sitting on the throne. If your security is based on the amount of money in your bank account, check your heart and see who is really on the throne. If your self-worth is dependent on earthly relationships, check your heart and see who is really on the throne.

God never promised that everything would go your way in this world. But He did promise that He would always be on the throne and in the end He would call His children home. In the meantime…

Let us approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need
