

Impact Kids Fall 2026 Leader Devo

December 2, 2026- Disciples are all in for Jesus.

Bible-Mark 10: 17-27- Rich Leader.

Disciples make Jesus part of every day.

Read: Mark 10: 17-27

Highlight: Mark 10: 27

Reflect: A wealthy young man asked Jesus what he must do to inherit eternal life. Jesus challenged him to sell his possessions, give to the poor, and follow Him, revealing that the man's wealth had become more important to him than trusting God. Jesus taught His disciples that salvation is impossible through human effort but is possible with God, and that following Him is worth any sacrifice.

- What are you holding onto most tightly? The rich young ruler's possessions kept him from fully following Jesus. Consider whether there is anything competing with your devotion to Christ.
- Salvation is a gift, not an achievement. No amount of success, morality, or effort can earn eternal life; we are completely dependent on God's grace.
- Following Jesus is worth the cost. Jesus promises that those who sacrifice for His sake will experience God's blessings now and eternal life in the age to come.
- Consider: If Jesus asked you to surrender something that provides security, comfort, or identity, would you trust Him enough to let it go and follow Him wholeheartedly?

Pray: Jesus, thank You for the truth we find in You and Your Word. Help each of us to desire Your truth over anything else. When there are tough teachings from your Word, remind us of your Son and His sacrifice to help us know you better. Open our eyes and heart for where you want to work in and through us. Help us to lay ourselves at your feet. We love You Lord with all that we know. Amen!

Connect: The rich young ruler wanted to follow Jesus, but he struggled to let go of what mattered most to him. As leaders, we have the opportunity to model wholehearted devotion to Jesus by putting Him first in our time, priorities, and relationships.

Remember: The greatest gift we can give children is not a perfect lesson or a perfectly run classroom—it's an example of someone who loves and follows Jesus above everything else. When kids see leaders who trust Jesus, serve faithfully, and find their identity in Him, they learn what it looks like to be all in for Christ.
