

RIDGEVIEW CHURCH

Week of 10/11/2026

Read: 2 Peter 1:1-11

Connect Questions:

1. Peter says divine power has already given us everything that pertains to life and godliness. Where in this past week did you live as if heaven had run out of supply, when the real issue was that you left the gift in the seat?
2. The word behind “add” is not a math word. It is a patron funding every voice in the choir. Of virtue, knowledge, self-control, perseverance, godliness, brotherly kindness, and love, which voice have you refused to fund, and what would supplying it look like before next Sunday?
3. A seated faith can still quote the verses and feel empty, because information is not epignōsis. Where are you acquainted with facts about Jesus, and where are you actually walking with Him the way you walk with someone you have known for years?
4. Peter says the one who lacks these things has forgotten that he was cleansed. When has unused grace fogged the cross for you, so that you could still say “I believe” and no longer feel the wonder of being washed?
5. Verses 3 and 4 say God has already acted. Verses 5 through 7 say, for that reason, we labor. Where are you tempted to reverse that, working so God will respond, instead of laboring because He already has?

Memory Verses: 2 Peter 1:2-3 NKJV “Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, as His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue,”
