

RIDGEVIEW CHURCH

Week of 7/5/2026

Read: Luke 17:1-10

Connect Questions:

1. In your home, neighborhood, workplace, and church—are you currently a stumbling block or a stepping stone to the “little ones”?
2. Is there an offense you are carrying that has put down deep roots? What would it look like to ask Jesus to pull it up “by the roots”? What would biblical forgiveness look like?
3. Do you measure your faith by its size or by the greatness of its Object?
4. When you serve the LORD, do you secretly expect a “thank you” or recognition? Where might a “hidden invoice” be attached to your service?
5. How does the way our church community forgive one another make the gospel visible (or invisible) to outsiders?

Memory Verse: Luke 17:6 NKJV ⁶So the Lord said, “If you have faith as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.
