DON'T GET HOOKED: SPOTTING SCAMS AT LAKEVIEW

Have you gotten a strange message that looked like it came from Pastor Kristin? Today, we'll share how to spot the scams targeting our congregation and what to do if one reaches you.

THIS MORNING: EARN. SAVE. GIVE.

LUKE 19:1-10

HOW FAR WILL YOU GO?

Pastor Kristin Hansen

Everybody in Jericho thought they knew who Zacchaeus was. Chief tax collector. Wealthy. The guy who got rich off his neighbors. The crowd had stuck a label on him a long time ago, like a name tag he never got to take off.

Then Jesus comes through town, stops under a tree, looks up, and calls him by name. Not the label. His name.

Here's what gets me: Jesus doesn't ask Zacchaeus to clean up his act first. The welcome comes first, and the change follows. Zacchaeus gives half of what he owns to the poor and pays back the people he wronged. That's what happens when someone really sees us.

So who around you is wearing a label right now? Who might be waiting for someone to look up and call them by name? Jesus came to find the lost, and no one is out of reach.

"Earn. Save. Give.: Grateful for What We Have, Faithful with What We Give." Drawing on biblical teachings and John Wesley's principles of earning, saving, and giving, we look toward 2027, we consider how our generosity helps make Lakeview's ministry and mission possible for generations to come.

YOUR GIFT HAS A STORY

Every gift tells a story, whether it helps someone feel welcomed or supports a ministry that brings people together. Your generosity turns Lakeview's mission into action, caring for people and sharing Christ's love in meaningful ways.

MINI CRANBERRY MEATBALL BITES

Popping squares of pastry into a mini muffin tin makes forming the bites super-easy and bakes up crisp and buttery, an elegant counterpart to the sweet, tangy meatball center glazed with cranberry sauce.

BECAUSE EVERY CHILD DESERVES A CHRISTMAS MORNING

Somewhere in our community, a child is dreaming about Christmas, and a parent is wondering how to make it happen. This year, Lakeview can help.

Now through Sunday, December 13, our annual Toy Drive is collecting gifts for children served by Valley View Food Bank. A new toy tells a child, "You are seen. You are loved. You matter."

Don't forget the older kids! Tweens and teens need gifts too. Ideas: perfume or cologne, hair brushes, nail polish or press-on nails, card games, board games, and gift cards to Walmart, Target, or 5 Below.

How to help:

- Give a gift: toys, games, puzzles, or books for younger children
- Drop it off in the Toy Drive boxes in Smoot Hall
- Give financially to help fill any gaps

Every gift matters. Grab one, bring a smile, and help us make this a Christmas they will never forget.

WE NEED YOU! HELP DECK THE HALLS

Come lend a hand and share some laughs! Show up, pitch in, and help make our church feel like Christmas!

SING ADVENT IN A WHOLE NEW WAY!

Before the season gets busy, give yourself a gift: a few quiet minutes to breathe, to sing, and to wonder. This Advent, Pastor Kristin invites you to rediscover the carols you love, and a few you may be meeting for the very first time.

Our daily study uses Carols for the Coming Christ by Adam Tice, a devotional book filled with beloved and brand-new hymns of Advent and Christmas. Each day brings a song text paired with scripture, thoughtful commentary, and reflection questions. From December 1 through Epiphany on January 6, you'll uncover the stories behind the carols and may find yourself hearing a familiar tune with fresh ears. Who knows what you'll discover?

Get your copy! The book will be available in the church office soon for just $10. Grab one and join the fun!

Start your day with Pastor Kristin
Every day from December 1 to January 6, a new meditation will be waiting for you online at 11:00-11:30 AM. Take a few peaceful moments for yourself, wherever you are.
