Every good and perfect gift is from God. This kind of gift comes down from the Father who created the heavenly lights. These lights create shadows that move. But the Father does not change like these shadows. • James 1:17 NIrV

K1 - Red Spot Drama

What You Need

Bible	1
Sheets of small red circle stickers	10
Paper plates	1

What You Do:

During the Activity:

- Invite the kids to join you in a seated circle.
- Give each child a sheet of red circle stickers and a paper plate.
- Instruct the kids to place 10 red circle stickers all over their arms and hands. Explain that these represent the sick spots (leprosy) the men in the story had.
- Explain that because of these spots, the men had to live far away from their homes and families.
- Read the story recap points below, and guide the kids to act them out:
  - "10 men with spots saw Jesus coming. Because they had to stay far away, they stood at a distance and cried out in a loud voice: 'Jesus, Master, help us!'" (Direct kids to cup their hands around their mouths and whisper-shout the line.)
  - "Jesus looked at them and said: 'Go show yourselves to the priests.' Even though they still had spots, the men trusted Jesus' words and started walking!" (Instruct kids to march in place.)
  - "And guess what? While they were walking, they were healed! All of their spots disappeared!" (Tell the kids to quickly peel the red dot stickers off their arms and stick them onto their paper plates.)
  - "The men were so excited! Nine of them kept going. They were probably so excited that they forgot to go back and say thank you." (Pretend to run in place.)
  - "But ONE man stopped. He turned around, fell at Jesus' feet, and praised God with a loud voice, saying, 'Thank You!'" (Direct the kids to drop to their knees and say, "Thank You, Jesus!")

What You Say:

"You did an amazing job acting out that story! The 10 men must have been so incredibly happy when their spots disappeared. But only one of them turned back around to say thank you to Jesus. Jesus was so glad he came back, but He wondered where the other nine were. We want to be like that one man who returned. Let's make sure we [Bottom Line] remember to thank God for all the good things He does for us."

K1 - Who Said Thank You? | Made to Play Uses Minimal Supplies

What You Need

Thank you note and envelope	1
Pen	1

EveryChild tips

- For kids who get anxious standing in the center of the circle alone, let them partner up with you (the leader) to make the guesses together.
- If a child is non-verbal, they can point to their guesses instead of speaking.

What You Do:

Before the Activity:
- Draw a heart on the inside of the note and write Thank you!
- Insert the note into the envelope.

During the Activity:
- Have the kids sit in a circle.
- Explain that you are going to play a game similar to “Doggy, Doggy, Where's Your Bone?”, but with a gratitude twist!
- Teach the kids the following chant:
  - “Lepers, Lepers, 10 in a line,

All ran off, and all look fine!

Who stayed? Who knew?

Who came back to say thank you?”

- Choose one child to be the guesser. Direct the guesser to sit in the center of the circle, close their eyes, and cover them with their hands.
- Place the small “Thank You” envelope on the floor behind the guesser.
- Quietly point to one child in the circle. That child must quietly creep up, grab the thank you note, and hide it behind their back.
- Instruct everyone in the circle to place their hands behind their backs so they all look the same.
- Lead the group in chanting the rhyme together.
- At the end of the chant, the guesser opens their eyes and gets three guesses to figure out who has the thank you note.
- Once guessed, choose a new guesser and play again as time allows.

What You Say:

“In our game, we had to look closely to find the one person who had the thank you note. In real life, saying thank you is so important. We don't want to run off and forget to be grateful like the other nine men did. Thank God for His love and for sending Jesus to take the consequences for your sins so you could be close to Him! Thank God that He is with us all the time through the Holy Spirit— and that we will be able to live forever with Him in heaven. Thank God for all the ways you’ve seen Him show up in your day, like helping you make a new friend at school, or giving you patience with your little sister. Every day, we can look for the good things in our lives and [Bottom Line] remember to thank God!”
