The Longest Night

While Christmas is a season of joy for many, it can be a difficult time for those experiencing grief, loneliness, illness, or uncertainty. Our Longest Night Service offers a quiet space to acknowledge these struggles, remember loved ones, and bring our burdens before God.
Monday, December 21 at 5 pm.

Holiday Food Boxes & More

It is time again to prepare for Christmas boxes. This time we are providing gifts of clothing and toys for the children in the families as well as food.

See Myrna Bishop in the back of the sanctuary if you want to help.
