WELCOME

CALL TO WORSHIP (Please Stand)

Pastor Justin Miller

Please stand if you are able and join in the call to worship.

There are days we walk this road with our heads down, sure the story has ended badly.

Open our eyes, Lord, to see who walks beside us even now.

We did not find him first; he came looking for us, and the price of our rescue was not silver or safety, but everything he had.

We were bought back at a cost we could never have paid ourselves.

Though our eyes are slow and our hope grows thin, he keeps drawing near and opening what was closed.

Our hearts burn within us; make yourself known to us again.

We were born into empty ways handed down to us, but he has given us a new birth that will not fade.

We come with living hope, to worship the God who raises the dead.

Let his word be broken open among us, as bread is broken at the table.

We are here. Open the Scriptures. Open our eyes. We worship you, risen Lord.

OPENING PRAYER (Please Stand)

Pastor Justin Miller

HYMN (Please Stand)

"God of the Ages, History's Maker "

No.78

- 1 God of the ages, history's Maker, planning our pathway, holding us fast, shaping in mercy all that concerns us: Father, we praise you, Lord of the past.
- 2 God of the morning, gladly your children worship before you, trustingly bow:
teach us to know you always among us, quietly sovereign-Lord of our now.
- 3 God of tomorrow, strong over-comer, princes of darkness own your command:
what then can harm us? We are your people, now and forever kept by your hand.
4. Lord of past ages, Lord of this morning, Lord of the future, help us, we pray:
teach us to trust you, love and obey you, crown you each moment, Lord of today.

CALL TO CONFESSION (Please Be Seated)

Pastor Justin Miller

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Pastor Justin Miller

Merciful God, we confess that we have walked through our days with hearts too slow to believe and eyes too clouded to recognize you near us. We have carried our grief and our fear alone, rehearsing what has gone wrong instead of turning to ask what you are doing. We have slipped back into old, empty ways — patterns we inherited and never questioned — as though we had not been bought back at so great a cost. We have called ourselves your own and then failed to love one another deeply, from a clean heart, the way you have loved us. Forgive our unbelief. Open what we have kept shut. Give us again the hope that does not fade, and the love that does not grow cold. In the name of Jesus Christ, who was handed over for us and raised for our sake, we pray. Amen. Silent Confession

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Pastor Justin Miller

Hear this and take it to heart: the price of your ransom has already been paid, and it was paid in full — not with anything that rusts or fades, but with a life poured out on your behalf. The One who was handed over for you was also raised for you, so that your faith and your hope now rest in God alone. If you have confessed with a believing heart, you are forgiven. The empty ways behind you no longer define you; you have been born again into something that will never wear out. Friends, believe this good news: in Jesus Christ, you are forgiven, and you are free. Praise God! Amen.

RESPONSE (Please Stand)

“Gloria Patri”

Public Domain | Bethany CCLI License 1761225 | Bethany Livestream License 20229965

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

PASSING OF THE PEACE

Pastor Justin Miller

Since God has forgiven us in Christ. Let us be at peace with one another. The peace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all...and also with you.
The kids can come forward for the Children’s Sermon as you all take a moment to share the peace of Christ with those around you.

PRAYER OF ILLUMINATION

Pastor Justin Miller

FIRST READING

1 Peter 1: 17-23

Pastor Justin Miller

If you invoke as Father the one who judges impartially according to each person's work, live in fear during the time of your exile You know that you were ransomed from the futile conduct inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your trust and hope are in God. Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth¹ so that you have genuine mutual affection, love one another deeply from the heart You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

SECOND READING

Luke 24:13-35

Pastor Brian Janssen

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but they did not see him." Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures. As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem, and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty. From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

HYMN (Please Stand)

“O God Our Help in Ages Past”

No. 84

- 1 Our God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
 our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home.
- 2 Under the shadow of your throne Your saints have dwelt secure;
 sufficient is your arm alone, and our defense is sure.
- 3 Before the hills in order stood or earth received her frame,
 from everlasting you are God, to endless years the same.
- 4 A thousand ages in your sight are like an evening gone, short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

BACKGROUND ON WORLD CULTURAL MUSIC YOU HEARD TODAY

The PRELUDE, “Santo, Santo, Santo” today shares multicultural origins. According to Hymnary.org, this Spanish setting of the Sanctus was submitted by the Hispanic task force who select music from Hispanic sources for the 1987 Psalter Hymnal. The song, typical of the many folk choruses known by evangelical Christians throughout Latin America, is often paired with “No Hay Dios” in the Hispanic community, where the tradition is to sing several choruses in together in medley fashion.

“Come Let Us Eat”, the 8:15 Offertory, is a Liberian Loma communion hymn composed in the 1960’s by Billema Kwilla, a Loma-speaking literacy teacher and evangelist in Liberia. The tune was shaped in the Loma oral Call-and-response tradition, where a leader invites the congregation to join in, and the people respond. This structure reflects the communal nature of the Lord’s Supper in Loma Christian worship

“The Bread of Life for All Is Broken”, by Yin-Lan Su, cpr. 1989 by the United Methodist Publishing House, was shared during the Distribution of Communion. It is a Chinese hymn that is in Hymns of Universal Praise as one of the fifty indigenous hymns in this hymnal from 1936 that was used by many denominations. It is written by Timothy Tingfang Lew who was born in Wenchau, Chekiang, China and was a third generation Christian. He was also a well-known educator as well as an author, editor and ecumenist. He helped to organize the National Christian Council of China in 1922 and was also the Chinese delegate to three assemblies of the World Council of Churches. His most important contribution was his service as the chairman of the commission and text editor of Hymns of Universal Praise (1936) under the musical editorship of Chinese Methodist missionary Bliss Mitchell Wiant. Hymns of Universal Praise has been considered a monumental achievement in Chinese History as six denominations joined together for the publications. The lyrics to “The Bread of Life for All is Broken” profoundly expressed the suffering of Jesus. Bliss Wiant reported that during World War II, Chinese Christians who were inmates of Japanese prison camps were not able to celebrate Holy Communion but would instead sing in a call-and-response manner to remember the suffering, death, and promised presence of Jesus Christ. Although the hymn emphasizes suffering, it is a very important expression of faith during difficult times.
