Pray for Our Missionaries to Taiwan - Ethan & Sandy Christofferson

From Women's Ministries of the CLB newsletter

Sandy shares these ways we can be in prayer:

1. We are very excited that a younger friend of ours was baptized a few weeks ago. Among those who attended the baptism were a couple of non-Christian friends and several family members. The non-Christian friends were quite interested in the testimony that he gave, and we hope that they will continue to have an interest in spiritual things.
2. I've been taking an older woman to doctor appointments for a gallstone. Eventually she will have to have surgery for it. I think I might be the one who takes care of her while she recuperates. That might be a bit of a stretch for me! But as I try to show her God's love, I pray that her heart will soften and that she will be willing to give up ancestor worship once and for all.
3. We will be in the States this summer and are looking forward to getting several of the East Coast churches in person. We'll be doing a lot of road traveling, so we pray for God's mercies over the next few months.

HOME TALK

Making Disciples in the Middle of Everyday Life Mt 28:20a

Talking about The Second Article of the Creed

Redemption

I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from whence He shall come to judge the living and the dead.

What does this mean?

I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the Virgin Mary, is my Lord, who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned creature, bought and freed me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil-not with silver and gold, but with His holy and precious blood, and with His innocent sufferings and death-in order that I might be His own, live under Him in His Kingdom, and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness; even as He is risen from the dead, and lives and reigns to all eternity. This is most certainly true.

166 What does the name Jesus mean?

The name Jesus means Savior.

Matthew 1:21 "She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins."

167 What does the word Christ mean when given as a title for Jesus?

The title Christ means Anointed One or one set apart by God to be the Savior.

168 How was Jesus anointed?

God anointed Jesus with the Holy Spirit and with power.

Acts 10:38 "...how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him."

169 What was Jesus sent to be for you?

He was sent to be my Prophet, High Priest, and King.

The Lord's Supper

Who may participate?

This sacrament is meant for believers in Jesus Christ (1 Corinthians 11:27-29). It is the way that God unites His church, sustains the church and grows faith, hope and love as the church participates in this shared grace together. Communion is God's way of delivering assurance of the forgiveness of sins to the flock.

What is received?

Christ gives to the communicants His body and blood - in, with, and under the bread and wine. He declares the forgiveness of sin to all believers, and strengthens their faith.

I feel I'm unworthy to receive

Being unworthy of Jesus' body and blood is the primary reason to receive the forgiveness of sins promised in communion. But it is possible to receive communion with an unworthy attitude. Therefore, self-examination is called for (1 Corinthians 11:28, 31).

I do well to ask myself:

1. Do I believe Jesus' promises?

"Without faith it is impossible to please God" (Hebrews 11:6).

2. Do I recognize Jesus' presence?

"Whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord. Anyone who eats and drinks without recognizing the body of the Lord eats and drinks judgment on himself" (1 Cor. 11:27, 29).

3. Am I reconciled with my fellow believers?

If we do not value reconciliation with others, we put ourselves in a place where we are distancing ourselves from God's will for us. We are living in rebellion.

4. Do I recognize my sinfulness and that it will be the death of me?

(1 John 1:5-10)

5. Is my hope in Jesus alone as the one who can give me eternal life?

We invite those who confess Jesus as their Savior from sin and death to receive the gift of forgiveness of sins offered and gifted in this sacrament.

A Note for Parents

Because communion requires time for self-examination, we do not encourage communion for children until they are old enough to be taught and old enough for self-examination. Through teaching they will appreciate its significance. Catechism Classes provide an opportunity to learn about the Lord's Supper. These classes are taught with the use of Luther's Small Catechism ... If you would like a copy of the Small Catechism for personal instruction or to instruct your children please contact the Pastor or the church office.
