Making Disciples in the Middle of Everyday Life Mt 28:20a

Talking about The First Article of the Creed

Redemption

I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty, from whence He shall come to judge the living and the dead.

What does this mean?

I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the Virgin Mary, is my Lord, who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned creature, bought and freed me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil-not with silver and gold, but with His holy and precious blood, and with His innocent sufferings and death-in order that I might be His own, live under Him in His Kingdom, and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness; even as He is risen from the dead, and lives and reigns to all eternity. This is most certainly true.

183 Why has Christ redeemed you?

Christ has redeemed me in order that I might belong to Him, be a citizen in His Kingdom, and serve Him perfectly and happily without guilt, forever.

2 Corinthians 5:15 "...and he [Jesus] died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised."

Luke 1:69, 74-75 "...and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David...that we, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him all our days."

184 How did Christ become Savior and Redeemer of the world?

Christ became Savior and Redeemer of the world by humbling Himself and by becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross (Philippians 2:8).
