Mission Focus

Pray for our missionaries - Todd and Leah Waldie
from Women's Ministries CLB newsletter

Leah shares these things we can be praying for:

1. For perseverance in language learning for Todd and me. We have about a month of class left this trimester. We renewed our visas and the plan is to stay in France until next summer to complete two additional trimesters of language learning before heading to Africa.
2. For our son Nathaniel's application to Black Forest Academy. We are hoping to have this done by the early application deadline of November and will find out if he's been accepted by December 7th. This would be for his junior year of high school, 2027-28.
3. For safe travels for our daughter, Gabriella, as she flies by herself for the first time to visit us in France for Christmas.
4. For all of us as we say goodbye in December to all of the language students who started school with us back in January, and as we greet the incoming students at the end of December/early January. Being the ones left behind and saying goodbyes is hard.

Thank you so much for the prayers

BIBLE CENTERED - FAMILY FOCUSED - MISSION DRIVEN

LIVING FAITH

Welcome!

Christ the King Sunday
November 22, 2026

We're glad you're here to worship with us. If you're visiting with us today, we hope you'll stick around for a bit after the service. We'd love to get acquainted with you. If you'd like us to contact you, please scan our QR code on the back of the bulletin, or fill out a visitor card at our Welcome Center.

BIBLE CENTERED Through God's saving Word we have been adopted into God's Family and share in the saving work of Jesus Christ.

FAMILY FOCUSED As brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ, we serve each other and worship, learn and work together.

MISSION DRIVEN We are engaged in Jesus' disciple-making mission - winning souls for Christ by the preaching of the Word and personal witnessing, and strengthening believers through Christian fellowship in the Word and Sacraments.

Talking about
The Third Article of the Creed

Sanctification

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

What does this mean?

I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ, My Lord, or come to Him, but the Holy Spirit has called me through the Gospel, enlightened me with His gifts, and sanctified and preserved me in the true faith, just as He calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian church on earth, and preserves it in union with Jesus Christ in the one true faith, in which Christian church he daily forgives abundantly all my sins, and the sins of all believers, and at the last day will raise up me and all the dead, and will grant everlasting life to me and all who believe in Christ. This is most certainly true.

209 How does the Holy Spirit call you?

The Holy Spirit calls me to faith in Christ by the Gospel in Word and Sacraments.

Romans 10:17 "So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ."

2 Thessalonians 2:14 "To this [salvation] he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ."

210 What other ways does the Holy Spirit use to call you or to get your attention?

The Holy Spirit uses sufferings, blessings, and the example of others to get my attention.

2 Corinthians 7:10 "For godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation without regret, whereas worldly grief produces death."

Romans 2:4b "... God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance..."

1 Timothy 4:12 " Let no one despise you for your youth, but set the believers an example in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity."

The Lord's Supper

Who may participate?

This sacrament is meant for believers in Jesus Christ (1 Corinthians 11:27-29). It is the way that God unites His church, sustains the church and grows faith, hope and love as the church participates in this shared grace together. Communion is God's way of delivering assurance of the forgiveness of sins to the flock.

What is received?

Christ gives to the communicants His body and blood - in, with, and under the bread and wine. He declares the forgiveness of sin to all believers, and strengthens their faith.

I feel I'm unworthy to receive

Being unworthy of Jesus' body and blood is the primary reason to receive the forgiveness of sins promised in communion. But it is possible to receive communion with an unworthy attitude. Therefore, self-examination is called for (1 Corinthians 11:28, 31).

I do well to ask myself:

1. Do I believe Jesus' promises? "Without faith it is impossible to please God" (Hebrews 11:6).

2. Do I recognize Jesus' presence? "Whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of sinning against the body and blood of the Lord. Anyone who eats and drinks without recognizing the body of the Lord eats and drinks judgment on himself" (1 Cor. 11:27, 29).

3. Am I reconciled with my fellow believers? If we do not value reconciliation with others, we put ourselves in a place where we are distancing ourselves from God's will for us. We are living in rebellion.

4. Do I recognize my sinfulness and that it will be the death of me? (1 John 1:5-10)

5. Is my hope in Jesus alone as the one who can give me eternal life?

We invite those who confess Jesus as their Savior from sin and death to receive the gift of forgiveness of sins offered and gifted in this sacrament.

A Note for Parents

Because communion requires time for self-examination, we do not encourage communion for children until they are old enough to be taught and old enough for self-examination. Through teaching they will appreciate its significance. Catechism Classes provide an opportunity to learn about the Lord's Supper. These classes are taught with the use of Luther's Small Catechism … If you would like a copy of the Small Catechism for personal instruction or to instruct your children please contact the Pastor or the church office.
