ANNOUNCEMENTS

Even If Ministry Information Session

Today the Even If leadership team will be sharing more about how this ministry is growing and supporting families in our community. If you have wanted to learn more about our special needs ministry, what we are doing to welcome families and how the church helps meet needs through knowledge and inclusive opportunities, join us after the 10:45am service in the fellowship hall for a short conversation and Q&A session.

Master Planning Town Hall

We will host a special Master Planning Town Hall today from 5:00-7:00pm led by our master planning and architectural consultants. During this two-hour gathering, we will participate in a guided strategic exercise designed to help us pray, dream, and think together about the future of our church—particularly how our campus and facilities can best support the ministry vision God has given us. Refreshments will be provided, and childcare will be available for children from birth through 5th grade. To help us prepare well, we ask that you please register online. We encourage all active members to make plans to join us for this important and meaningful evening as we seek the Lord together for the future of FBCCS.

Guest Services Training

If you are new to our Guest Services since March 2026 or have never attended a Guest Services training, please plan to join us for training today, from 10:45am-12:15pm in Conference Room B. We will highlight our team mission as well as our best practices and practical suggestions for serving all of our guests through our Guest Services teams. We will conclude the training with a tour for those who are interested. Please contact Verena Ruiz at guestservices@summerfieldfbc.com with any questions you may have.
