

There Are 3 Seasons Every Saint Must Go Through

~A.L. Moss, Sr., M.Th.

I. There is a season of Preparation

- a. There's a discovery of God and knowing Him, Hosea 4:6 and Philippians 3:10.
- b. There's a discovery of yourself: Identity is revealed.
- c. There's a discovery of your assignment: Purpose is revealed.
- d. This is where you follow the Lord and He begins form you, Matthew 4:19.

II. There is a season of Testing and Pruning

- a. This is the hardest of the three because you must learn to live in the silence of God. The silence of God is a language and He's training you to walk by faith and not by sight. The silence of God breaks your ego and it prepares you to last and not quit! It's in this season that you go through a crushing and capacity is tested.

III. There is a season of Reveal, God making you public, Luke 1:80

- a. John the Baptist remained in the wilderness in the silence of God, like a seed planted in the dirt germinating. This is the season everyone sees. It takes training and equipping before you get here! We honor and thank God for making it here because it took stamina, dexterity and perseverance to get to this season! It's in this season you get sent!

If you're asking yourself, 'Why is it taking so long for things to fall in place for me?' Maybe the answer is you're stuck in season one or two!
