Dear Brothers and Sisters in the work of Christ,

Stop and think for a moment.
Ask yourself this question:

“What am I a part of that is bigger than myself, older than time itself, and deeply valuable to every single person on Earth?”

The Church. Specifically, for you and me, Chapel Hill United Methodist Church. Now more than ever, people need to know that God is for them, not against them, and the Church is God’s first and foremost way of making that known.

Because we all share in this mission, this year’s stewardship series is titled “Shared Faith, Shared Future.” We each have something to share—our faith, our gifts, our time, and ourselves—and together, we can celebrate the shared mission that makes Chapel Hill a community of faith.

I am so encouraged by your shared faithfulness in the past and look forward to how that shared faith will shape our future.

Together,

Pastor Dave Buckner
