Sermon Series Summary | It Seemed Good...

What happens when faithful Christians disagree about something that really matters? Acts 15 gives us a remarkable picture of the early church wrestling together with an extremely difficult question. They debate, listen to one another, pay attention to what God is doing, search the Scriptures, seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and eventually move forward together. This series explores how we can pursue God's will without demanding our own way… learning to disagree with grace, listen with humility, discern through Scripture, and trust the Holy Spirit to lead God's people together.

Sermon Summary | No Small Dissension

CJ Young | October 25, 2026

The early church faced a disagreement that went right to the heart of the Gospel: "What must someone do to belong to the people of God?" Paul and Barnabas strongly disagreed with those who insisted Gentile believers needed to follow the law of Moses. But rather than walking away from one another, they brought the disagreement into the community and worked through it together. Acts 15 reminds us that unity does not mean we will never disagree. Christian unity is demonstrated in how we love one another when we do.

Scripture References from the Sermon

Acts 15:1–5 | John 13:34–35 | Ephesians 4:1–6, 15
Philippians 2:1–5

Discussion Questions

1. What stands out to you in the text?
2. When you experience disagreement, do you naturally avoid it, try to win it, or work through it? Why?
3. What is the difference between Christian unity and simply agreeing about everything?
4. What behaviors or attitudes tend to turn disagreements between Christians into division?
5. Think about a disagreement you are currently experiencing. What would it look like to approach that person as a brother or sister rather than an opponent?
