Sermon Series Summary | Life in the Spirit

What does it look like to live a life shaped by the presence of God? Join us as we discover a way of following Jesus that isn't built on striving, proving ourselves, or simply trying harder. It begins with receiving the love and grace of God and learning to walk in step with His Spirit. As the Spirit transforms us from the inside out, His love begins to take shape in our lives, in how we love and serve one another, and how we join God in His work in the world.

Sermon Summary | Concrete Love

CJ Young | October 4, 2026

In this section of Galatians, Paul takes love out of the abstract and makes it concrete. It looks like restoring someone gently when they fall, carrying one another's burdens, taking responsibility for our own lives, resisting comparison, doing good when we're tired, and refusing to give up on one another.

This is biblical community...a people learning to love one another the way Jesus has loved us. It isn't a community without struggles, sin, or burdens; it's a community where we don't have to carry them alone. As we keep in step with the Spirit and sow into His work among us, God forms us into a people who show up, bear burdens, extend grace, and keep doing good—even when the harvest takes time to see.

Discussion Questions

- 1.What stands out to you in the text?
- 2.As you read Galatians 6:1-10, what pictures of biblical community stand out to you? What would be noticeably different about a biblical community that consistently lived this way?
- 3.Paul tells us both to “carry each other’s burdens” (v. 2) and that “each one should carry their own load” (v. 5). What do you think it looks like to hold those two instructions together?
- 4.Biblical community requires both giving and receiving love. Which is more difficult for you: allowing others to see and help carry your burdens, or making space to genuinely carry the burdens of someone else? Why?

- 5.Where are you tempted to grow weary in loving, serving, forgiving, or showing up for others right now? What might it look like for your community—and the Spirit of God working through it—to help you keep going?
