DM DISCIPLESHIP
MINISTRIES

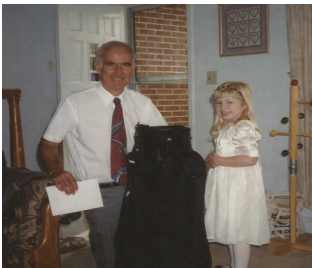

Reverend Jerry Sloss faithfully served the International Pentecostal Holiness Church and the Appalachian Conference for more than 40 years, ministering in churches in Bluefield, Merrimac, and Bain Chapel. He had a deep passion for reaching young people and sharing the love of Christ.

Pastor Sloss started youth outreach ministries, such as a bus ministry and Ambassadors for Christ, while also championing the importance of Girls' Auxiliary. These ministries helped introduce countless young people to the Gospel.

He also served many summers at Camp Maranatha as Head Camp Counselor, mentoring campers and building relationships that often lasted a lifetime. Many who knew him went on to answer the call to ministry.

Pastor Sloss believed no young person should miss camp because of financial hardship. This tournament continues that legacy—helping ensure the next generation can experience the same life-changing opportunity.
