11.1.26

1. How does understanding Jesus' death as the act that rescues us from sin, rather than merely an example of love, deepen your gratitude for him? How should that gratitude shape the way you live?
2. What does it mean to be personally known by Jesus? How might this truth bring comfort when you feel overlooked, discouraged, or distant from God?
3. How does Jesus having "sheep not of this fold" reveal the scope of Jesus' mission? As a church, how can we care well for those already among us while also keeping our eyes on those who have not yet come to know Christ?
4. How does Jesus' resurrection give you confidence in his power to save and keep his people? How should that confidence shape the way we face suffering, fear, or the challenges of sharing the gospel?
5. How does participating in communion help us remember and respond to the Good Shepherd who laid down his life for us and took it up again? How should remembering his sacrifice deepen our gratitude, strengthen our trust in him, and shape the way we live for him?
