R Group Questions
11 / 22 / 26

The Good Shepherd: The Shepherd Lord
Psalm 23

- What stood out to you from Sunday's sermon?
- Has Psalm 23 ever been read or quoted at a critical time in your life?
- Is the idea of "green pastures" and "still waters" described in Sunday's sermon different from your previous idea of these things?
- This Psalm points to the idea of, "just enough" for each day. Why is it actually good that God doesn't give us an over – abundance?
- What are some examples in scripture when God supplied just enough for each day?
- What were some times in your life that it felt like God was just getting you through one day at a time? What did that do for your faith and spiritual growth?
- If you had a Christian friend going through something that felt like a "alley of the shadow of death," how would you encourage him / her to find comfort in His presence?
- The Psalm shifts to the Lord being a generous host. Where has God been incredibly, abundantly generous with you in this life?
- How has the promise of eternity with Jesus, the Generous Host, helped you to continue walking with Jesus, the Good Shepherd?