A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Church Family,

Every November, I find myself thinking about a song from one of the coolest bands for those of us who grew up in the ’80s and ’90s—Guns N’ Roses’ "November Rain." The song proved that they were more than just another big-haired 80s band. The lyrics could reach deep into your soul.

Perhaps the most memorable line is, “Nothin’ lasts forever, even cold November rain.”

I've always thought that line could be heard in two very different ways. It's both a lament and a promise.

It's a lament because, in one sense, it's painfully true. Nothing in this world lasts forever. Not youth, not romance, not the beautiful moments we wish we could freeze in time. We want to hold on to our children when they're little. We want our marriages to remain as joyful as they were on our wedding day. We want our parents to grow old but never die. We wish we could return to certain moments in life—not because anything extraordinary happened, but because we didn't realize how extraordinary those ordinary moments were until they were gone.

We want the people we love to remain with us. But, time keeps moving. Seasons change. People change. Children grow up. Friends move away. Loved ones die. And eventually, our own lives will come to an end, followed in time by the fading memories of those who knew us.

Perhaps that's why a song like "November Rain" hits us harder as we get older. We eventually have enough life behind us to know exactly what it's talking about.

But here's the promise: Even pain and suffering won't last forever. The rain will eventually stop. And so will the tears.

The same truth that breaks your heart can also give you hope.

Of course, Jesus offers us something far greater than the passing of a difficult season. He offers us the promise of eternal life. Standing at the tomb of His friend Lazarus, the Savior who weeps also declares, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die." (John 11:25–26) The apostle Paul reminds us that, for the Christian, our present suffering is but a moment compared to the eternal glory awaiting us (2 Corinthians 4:17–18).

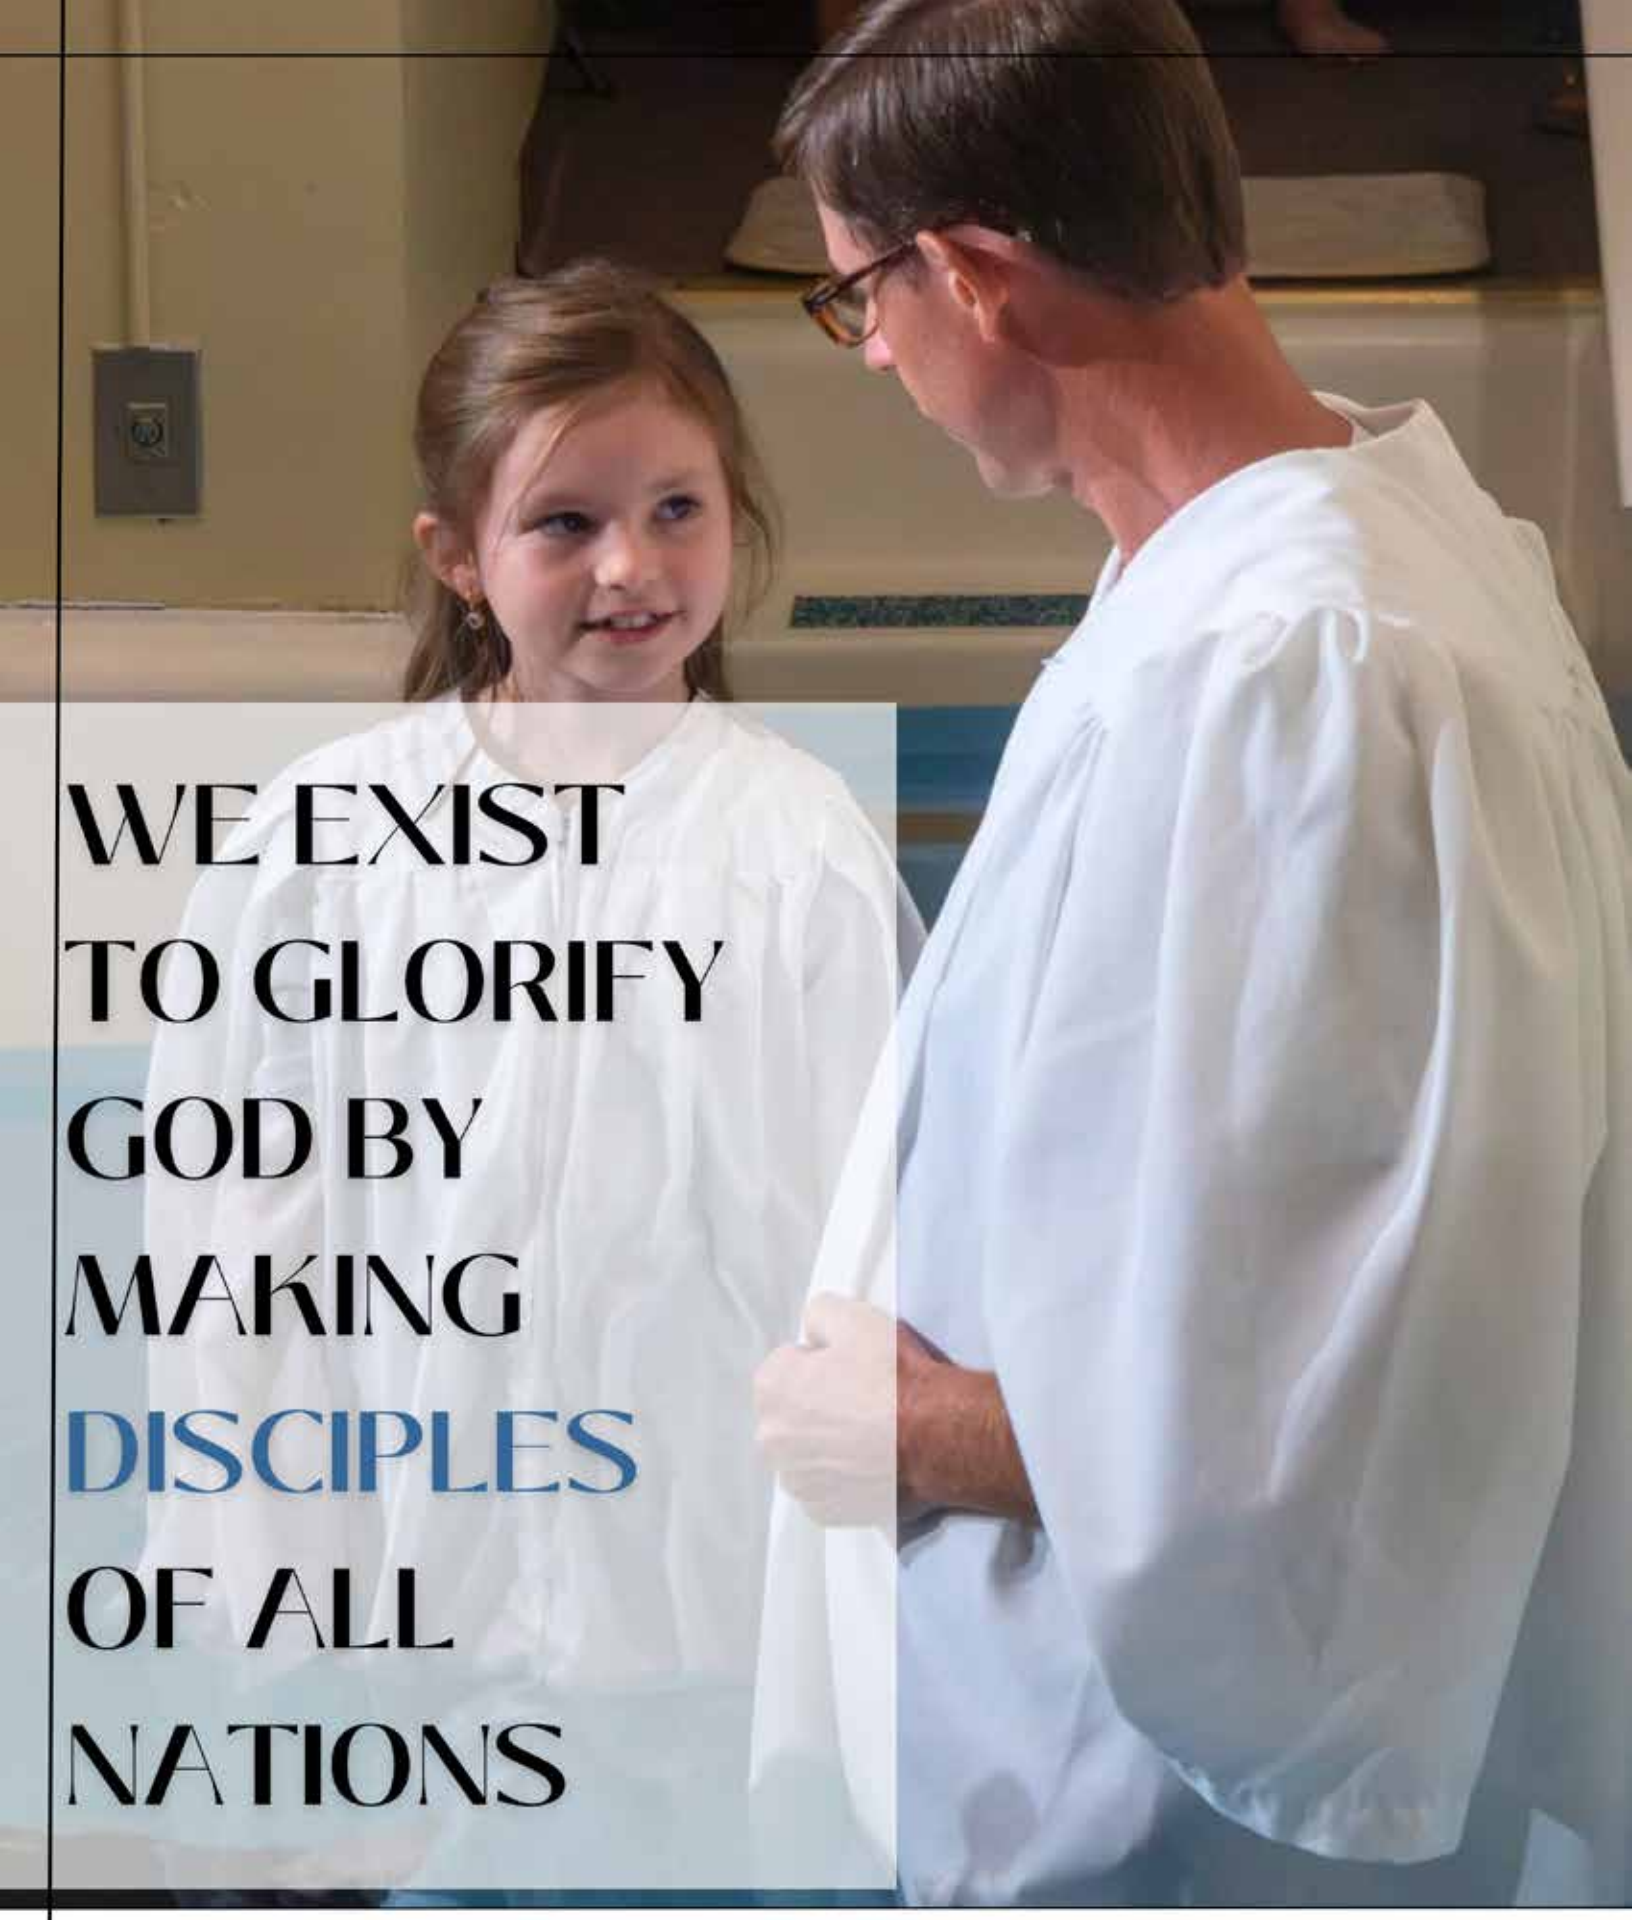

Everything we love in this world is vulnerable to loss. And deep within us is a longing for it to be otherwise. We were made for a love that death cannot destroy. And the glorious news of the Gospel is that such love is not merely a longing, but a reality—found only in Jesus.

So, as another November comes and goes, let the changing seasons remind you of two great truths: This world is passing away, but the promises of God never will.

One day, the cold November rain will give way to an everlasting spring. And for those who belong to Christ, the best is not behind us.

The best is yet to come.

- Pastor Ben

MILITARY APPRECIATION SUNDAY

NOVEMBER 1, 2026

We caught up with a few of our military families to ask them what FBCE has meant to them during their military journey. These are their answers.

First Baptist Enterprise was recommended to us by our church back home in Louisville, KY (Third Avenue Baptist Church). We visited the first week we arrived in Enterprise and loved the biblical preaching and singing songs that are based in profound theological truth. We have grown in our faith and have been nurtured by the community at FBCE.

One such blessing is that we can invite friends to FBCE having the confidence that they would get to hear the Gospel preached every Sunday. And we can point them afterwards to awesome Sunday school groups like Dr. Mike McQueen's class.

We are thankful and blessed for the faithfulness of the saints here at FBCE.

~ The Espende Family [Inno (Army, WO1) and Karyl]

For more than 17 years, First Baptist Church of Enterprise has been far more than a church to our family—it has truly become family.

It has been a joy and a privilege to serve in so many areas of the church alongside wonderful people who love Christ. Through growing our family, a deployment, and the death of a parent, your prayers, love, support, and encouragement have carried us.

We will always be thankful for Mr. Gerry Davis, Mr. Jimmy DuBose, and Mr. Bob Cannon knocking on our door 17 years ago and welcoming us into this church family.

~ The Gunter Family [Josh (Army - CW4, 153 D/M; Army Reserve - 155E), Claudia, Julian, and James]

As our first duty station in the Army, FBC Enterprise has been an incredible anchor for our family.

The church's love for Jesus and commitment to the gospel have encouraged and strengthened us through both joyful and difficult seasons. Earlier this year, our family walked through a season of deep grief, and FBC surrounded us with love and support.

We're deeply grateful for the way this church has cared for our family and pointed us to Christ. We're thankful to call FBC Enterprise home.

~ The Page Family [Ethan (Army - Chaplain, 56A), Megan, and Sophia]

2026 Fall Honduras Mission Trip

OCTOBER 3–9 | EL PLAN, HONDURAS

October 3–9, a team of 27 individuals traveled to El Plan, Honduras, to serve alongside our ministry partners at the Honduras Baptist Dental Mission and share the love of Christ. Throughout the week, our medical clinic cared for 926 patients, while our pharmacy filled an incredible 4,849 prescriptions! Our team also distributed 800 pounds of rice and beans to families in the community.

While these numbers are exciting, the greatest blessing was seeing how the Lord continues to work in the lives of the people of El Plan. Through medical care, meeting physical needs, building relationships, and sharing the Gospel, our team had the opportunity to be the hands and feet of Jesus.

We are thankful for everyone who prayed, gave, and helped make this trip possible. The Lord is at work in El Plan, Honduras, and we are grateful to be a small part of what He is doing.

Let deacons each be the husband of one wife, managing their children and their own households well. For those who serve well as deacons gain a good standing for themselves and also great confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus. (1 Timothy 3:8-13)*

BOLL WEEVIL FALL FESTIVAL OUTREACH TENT

“Does God really want me to be happy?”
“Could you share with me how Christians find satisfaction?”

These were some of the questions we heard at the Boll Weevil Fall Festival Outreach Tent. On a cool, breezy Saturday in October, FBC Enterprise had a prime spot right in front of the Boll Weevil Monument. With a whiteboard, some markers, and willing volunteers, we invited our neighbors into conversations that often went much deeper than anyone expected.

Our question was simple: “On a scale of 1–5, how satisfied are you with your life?”

Before the festival began, we prayed that God would prepare our hearts to see people, be curious, and listen to their stories. We asked for opportunities to pray, share the Gospel, and invite people to respond to Jesus.

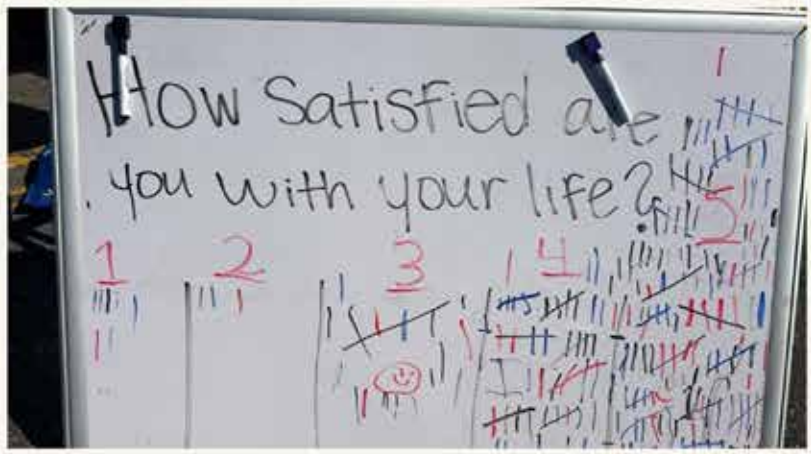

Throughout the day, we met people from all walks of life: young and old, Christians and atheists, longtime locals and immigrants. Some welcomed spiritual conversations. Others wanted nothing to do with them. But God used that simple question to open doors.

“I don’t think it’s possible to be fully satisfied. There’s too much wrong with the world,” one person shared.

Another confidently answered, “Yes, I am a 5 out of 5 because I know that Jesus is in my heart and nothing can change how God sees me and his love for me.”

We prayed with people, shared testimonies, explained the Gospel, and extended church invitations. “We’re actually looking for a church. Yes, we’d love to come check out First Baptist,” we heard.

Please pray that these conversations bear lasting fruit, that more members join in local evangelism, and that we continue initiating gospel conversations in everyday life. May we faithfully glorify God by making disciples of all nations.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST

2027 Camp Fundraiser

Thank you so much for your support of our FBCE children and students that participated in our camp fundraiser. Your generosity has made a significant impact on families in our church as they prepare for summer expenses.

It was a great morning of fellowship and commradery. And, whether you chant "Roll Tide" or "War Eagle" or another battle cry, our hearts are united in recognizing that summer camps can change lives for Christ. They challenge our youth to go deeper in their walks with Christ, step out in faith, and build stronger relationships.

Thank you to Pastor Ben, for once again being a good sport in our "friendly" Alabama versus Auburn competition for fundraising. For him to be willing to put on a Bama jersey 2 years in a row ... you know he loves our students and Jesus.

"Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth."
John 17:17

What Are We Learning?

Sunday Mornings

This month we will study the beginnings of Jesus' earthly ministry. John the Baptist prepared the way for Jesus' ministry. God confirmed Jesus' Sonship when He was baptized by John. Fully God, yet also fully human, Jesus was tempted by Satan, but He did not sin. As His ministry continued, Jesus invited others to follow Him as the only way to the Father.

Is Jesus God or a human?
Jesus is fully God and fully human.

Wednesday Nights

This month's truth is
WE ARE MADE FOR COMMUNITY!

WE ARE BETTER TOGETHER!

WE ARE PART OF SOMETHING BIG!

Discipleship Tools for Your Home

As parents, you have the unique privilege of nurturing your family's spiritual growth. We want to partner with you in making spiritual connections and discussions a part of the rhythm in your family.

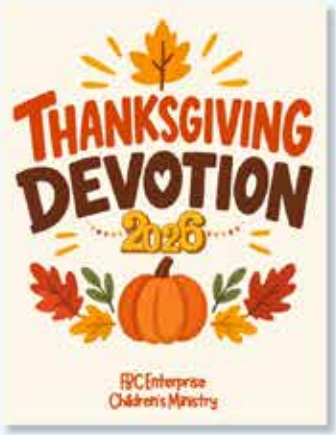

This month, there are two tools that our Next Gen Ministries are offering as options for your family.

Dinner & Discipleship

This is a weekly option to be used at the dinner table. Pick one day of the week to use this as a discussion guide for conversation while you eat together. There is a Bible reading, discussion questions, a prayer prompt, and a song to conclude your time. This edition includes readings for October and November.

This will be available at the entrances of the Sanctuary.

October Children's Devotions

This is a month's worth of daily activities for children. It is designed to help your child develop a daily habit of reading God's Word and talking with Him. Using the terms Read About It, Think About It, and Pray About It, this devotion will help children build spiritual disciplines for life. These are available at the HUB.

If a child completes the devotion book, a parent can verify and sign the back page. Have your child bring this page to Mrs. Cat for a special prize.

DIRECTOR OF FACILITIES

TELL US A LITTLE BIT ABOUT YOURSELF AND FAMILY

I graduated from Enterprise High School in 2004 and am glad to call this area home. I am honored to have been married to my beautiful wife, Sara, for 15 years. Our daughter, Noa, is 11 and loves ballet and running track. I enjoy using my hands to build and create, whether it's drawing silly characters with Noa or designing my next project.

COKE OR SWEET TEA?

Coke

WHAT'S YOUR GO-TO COMFORT FOOD?

Country Fried Steak

ARE YOU INVOLVED IN CHURCH? WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO BE INVOLVED?

I have been a member of Heritage Church for 26 years. The community there has encouraged me to become more like Jesus and to bless the world through authentic connection, passionate pursuit, and bold living.

WHAT COULD WE FIND YOU DOING OUTSIDE OF WORK?

Most likely on the golf course, or working on some kind of project

WHAT DO YOU LOVE MOST ABOUT WORKING AT FBCE?

It's a big building with lots of challenges. I enjoy getting to think creatively about solutions and using my gifts to help the Church.

BEST ADVICE TO GIVE SOMEONE NEWLY WALKING WITH CHRIST?

Remember that there is no sin that can separate you from the love of Christ. The enemy will try to convince you otherwise, but he is a liar. God's grace really is free and abundant. And while it's important to find a church to plug into, it's maybe even more important to find a few people that are also walking towards Jesus that you can share your real life with, your celebrations and your struggles.
