Students

It is hard to believe that the year is already coming to a close! As I look back over the past few months, I am so thankful for all that God has been doing in our student ministry. We have seen students make decisions to follow Jesus, take their next step in baptism, and continue growing in their faith. October was especially encouraging as we took a great group of students to Fall Back and continued seeing students grow in their walk with God.

One of the most exciting things happening right now is the start of several new discipleship relationships. Some of our student leaders have begun walking alongside other students through our New Believer Booklet, helping them understand what it means to follow Jesus and grow in their faith. On Sunday nights, we are also working through What We Believe, helping students understand the foundations of our faith and what Scripture teaches about them.

Looking ahead, we will have our Student Thanksgiving Night on Wednesday, November 18. I am also excited about the possibility of taking a mission team to Latvia next summer! This opportunity is open to older high school students and adults. If you are interested in learning more, please join us for an informational meeting on Sunday, November 8, immediately following morning worship in room 121.

Thank you for your continued prayers and support of our students and our church. It is such a blessing to be part of a church family that invests in the next generation. I am excited to see what God continues to do as we finish out the year!

From the Pastor

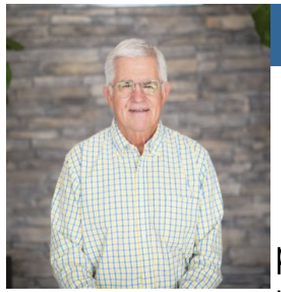

We have a lot of exciting things going on in November. On Sunday, November 15th, Danny Brown, who grew up in our church and has been a missionary to Thailand for over 20 years will be with us. He will be sharing about their ministry in Thailand. In 2024, Harry and I took a group to Thailand to help Danny in his ministry. I hope you come and hear what God is doing in Thailand. That evening we will have a fellowship so you can have time to visit with Danny and his team.

On Monday, November 23rd we will have our Thanksgiving fellowship. We didn't have one last year but we will this year. So fix your favorite veggie or salad and a desert. The church will provide the meat and dressing. This is a great opportunity to get to know more of our people. This would be a good time to invite someone who is unchurched to come with you. Afterward we will have some praise, worship and a small devotional.

Be praying for our finance committee as they begin to put together our proposed budget for 2027. We will present this proposed budget on Sunday, November 29th.

I'm so blessed to work with a great staff and to Pastor such a great church. I pray God will bless us as we move forward to a new year.

Discipleship / Missions

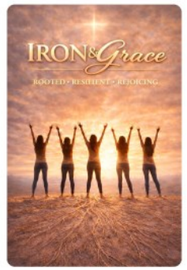

As the cooler weather sets in and the leaves begin to fall, I start to get excited about Thanksgiving—one of my absolute favorite times of the year. It always reminds me of times gone by, when we would travel to my grandparents' house and our whole family of cousins, aunts, and uncles would get together.

Although those are treasured memories and true gifts from God, remembering loved ones who are no longer with us can be hard, especially around the holidays. Shelly and I recently talked about the times we spent as kids with our own families, and we had a realization: we are now the grandparents. What a gift it is that the legacy of our parents and grandparents can now live on through us as we create treasured memories for our own children and grandchildren. God's grace allows us to build these new moments with the ones we love. We are truly thankful for the memories we carry, and we look forward to making wonderful new ones this Thanksgiving.

If you are entering this holiday season carrying the weight of missing someone you love, please know you are not alone, and it is okay to feel that ache. My encouragement to you is to hold tightly to the legacy they left behind. Let's choose to honor their memory by pouring love, gratitude, and presence into the family God has placed around us today. Your presence is a gift to them, just as those who came before were a gift to you.

In Christ,
Steve
