A MESSAGE FROM THE ELDERS:

This month we have discussed Life Groups in our Shepherd's Corners. It is our desire not only to maintain our Life Groups but to expand them and make them better. A Life Group is a group of Christians that meet together to strengthen their faith through sharing, encouragement and prayer. Coming together into a Life Group enables us to share and encourage each other to do God's work. One of the areas is encouragement, sharing the Gospel with the world where we live every day. Courage is a virtue that most of us lack when we are alone. Surrounded by others in a Life Group can give us the courage to share Jesus to the world. In Matthew chapter 10 Jesus sends out the Twelve and three times he tells them "Do not be afraid". As part of a Life Group, you have others to encourage you so do not be afraid. It is our desire that everyone has access to a Life Group. If you have questions or desire to volunteer contact one of us.
