Missions

Did everyone get a chance to check out the mission page on the CK website? If not, why not take a moment this week to get acquainted with some of the ways the church is fulfilling the great commission (Matt 28:18-20). It's just a click away: <https://ckcoc.org/missions>. One thing you will not find on that page are the names of all the current mission team members. One of which is Melanie Napier, who is featured below in an effort to inform the church of those that serve in this capacity and encourage you to consider joining this ministry as well.

MISSIONS COMMITTEE MEMBER: MELANIE GARCIA

Melanie grew up in a missionary household with both of her parents serving the Lord. In 2013 she went to the Adventures In Missions (AIM) program where she served for almost two years with the Homestead Church of Christ in Florida. Later she continued her education in Communications and entered the nonprofit world, where she continued to serve people.

When Melanie married Ian, they became missionaries in a church plant mission in Querétaro, Mexico where they served for two years. Now in Washington Melanie continues to serve the community through nonprofit organizations, most recently in her new role helping mothers and children.

With her bilingual skills and desire to help, Melanie tries to connect the Hispanic community and young adults to the church. You can contact Melanie at (206) 554-9727.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ELDERS:

He Has Risen

Far and wide, among every country and culture, the Good News is being proclaimed this day. An annual event for some. For believers, it is a weekly, if not daily, celebration. Of what does one refer to? The Good News that Jesus Christ of Nazareth affirmed his claim as the Son of God by rising from the grave on the third day, just as he said he would throughout his ministry.

Read now from the book of Matthew Chapter 28:

After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb.

There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men.

The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.' Now I have told you."

So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them. "Greetings," he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshiped him. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

To the honor and praise of our great Father in heaven, go now and do likewise. Tell everyone - Jesus Christ has risen.
