SUMMER SUNDAYS

There is something special about summer Sundays—the conversations linger a little longer, children fill the air with laughter, meals are shared, friendships grow deeper, and church feels less like a place we gather and more like a family we belong to.

Summer has a way of slowing us down just enough to truly appreciate the gift of one another.

Enjoy every moment for the blessing that it is.

- Those affected by the earthquake in Venezuela. Anyone interested in helping with donations can see Bob Pusey.
- Gene Johnson- recovering from surgery
- Ernie Wohleb- ulcerative colitis spread, affecting his lungs resulting in disheartening news. Ernie and Sue request the prayers of the church for strength, healing, and peace.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ELDERS:

This final week in June, we will discuss a forth way of praying which is being with God. Think about your most precious human relationships. They are filled with numerous rich events and conversations. But, some of your richest times with the ones we most love are when we are not trying to accomplish anything at all. We may not even be speaking – just spending time with one another. One writer described this experience in prayer as “wasting time with God.” Of course such time is no more wasted with God on those occasions than it is with our special loved ones. This kind of prayer is like a small vacation with God each time we do it –no agenda, no demands, no expectations. This brings to mind Psalm 46:10 – “Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.” If you desire someone to pray with or need help getting started, any one of us are always happy to pray with you as is our prayer team. All we ask is that you let us know.
