A MESSAGE FROM THE ELDERS:

Who Will Teach the Next Generation?

One of the most important ways we serve the Lord is by helping others grow in their understanding of His Word. Within the church, teaching is more than sharing Bible stories or explaining scripture; it is an opportunity to plant seeds of faith that can influence hearts and lives for years to come.

Jesus demonstrated the importance of teaching throughout His ministry, and He gave His followers the responsibility to continue that work.

In 2 Timothy 2:2 we read, “2 And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable people who will also be qualified to teach others”.

Paul encouraged Timothy to entrust what he had learned to faithful people who would be able to teach others also. This reminds us that sharing our faith is not the responsibility of a select few, rather it is an opportunity for all who become qualified to serve in this vital and important capacity.

You don't need to be a biblical scholar or an experienced teacher to make a difference. A willing heart, a desire to learn, and a commitment to helping others are excellent places to begin. Our current teachers need encouragement and support, and new teachers bring fresh energy and perspectives to this important ministry.

Could God be calling you to serve in this way?

Consider joining our teaching team. Whether you feel ready to lead a class, serve as a classroom helper, or would like to learn alongside an experienced teacher, there is a place for you.

The faith we nurture today helps support the church of tomorrow. Let's invest in that future, one lesson, one faith, and one life at a time.

You invite the guests. We'll provide the presentation, stories, and resources. Together we can raise awareness, inspire action, and bring hope to more survivors in our community. To find out more about this organization visit: <https://scarletroad.org/>
