A MESSAGE FROM THE ELDERS:

The young man returned to his room discouraged and disheartened. He had recently decided to be baptized into Jesus Christ and had come home from college, eager to share his new faith with his parents, hoping they too might be persuaded. But his parents didn't understand, expressed their displeasure, and made it clear they wanted no part of his new religion. In fact, they took it as a personal rejection of how they had raised him. The young man knew his parents were good people who believed in God. He knew that he had carefully prepared for this conversation, had asked God to give his parents a receptive heart, and had asked for wisdom to speak to them. Why then, he asked, did they not respond as he had hoped they would. And as he opened his Bible, looking for the answer, the Bible fell open to Ps 49 and his eyes fell upon vs 7-9
"No man can redeem the life of another or give to God a ransom for him – the ransom for a life is costly, no payment is ever enough – that he should live on forever and not see decay."

The young man then realized it was not up to him. Yes, Jesus paid the price for the sins of all people, but it is still up to each person to accept the salvation he offers. His parents were not ready at that time, and he wisely resolved to pray for them until such time that they were. Years later, he was privileged to see his prayers answered as his father joined him in the faith and was baptized.

We tell this story to encourage the young people among us. Do not be discouraged. You have enthusiasm for your faith and wish to share it with those you love. This is commendable. But their response is not up to you. Control those things you can control: Share your faith with those you love; Be respectful; Pray for them for however long it takes; And be patient. Your loved ones will respond when they are ready – not before. The ransom for a life is costly and there is only one who can pay it. The good news is that he has!

IGLESIA DE CRISTO Metropolitana CDMX Humboldt 51 Col Centro

Another exciting, fruitful work at our partner church in Mexico City, marriage retreat 2026, featuring our beloved fellow laborers in Christ, Gerardo & Carolina Garcia. On the second day it was reported that, "Brothers from Apaxco and Mexico City joined to strengthen the marriages of the congregations. Brothers Paul Dowell and Amy Dowell from Sunset Church of Christ came to impart the teaching. The marriages came out encouraged and grateful for the experience". It appears they had a costume party on the first day. These Christians are, "All in!" If you're wondering how you can be involved with this vibrant group, look for informative articles in the months ahead as the mission team develops plans and strategies for integration. Meanwhile, you can reach out to Melanie or Ian Napier for more information.
