Discussion Questions:

- Jesus gave his followers a large task, to tell the world about Jesus so that others could believe in Him. But He told His followers that they needed to wait in the city until they received the baptism in the Holy Spirit. Why did Jesus say that?
- Like a tree produces fruit, the Holy Spirit creates good character in our lives. What areas of your life would you like the Holy Spirit to help you grow?
- If you began to share your story about Jesus with someone else, how do you think it would go if the Holy Spirit was helping you instead of you trying to share on your own?
- What do you think it would be like if the supernatural activity of God was at work in your life?
- When we are baptized in the Holy Spirit, God gives us a new, personal prayer language, a language we never even learned before. How would you feel if you could pray in such a way that the Holy Spirit helped you to express the best prayer possible?
- Would you like to receive the baptism in the Holy Spirit?
