TODAY...

"How it all began..."

Would the story of you begin with your birth? Or, would you start with all the people, places, and events that led up to your birth? Today we begin a Summer-long journey to discover the beginnings of what we know as "church." Let's begin in Matthew 28:18-20 and expand our understanding about what it means to BE the Church!

ALSO TODAY...

Last Sunday we met for our Quarterly Cong. Meeting to learn that our giving is exceeding our expenses at least by a small margin. We got updates from our church ministry teams and from our Church Staff. We also got the first look at a revised Constitution and By-laws. Some adjustments will be made for our next reading at the cong. mtg. on July 19

The Brethren Retreat

Annual Meeting is an event for all churches like JCC, and individuals who partner with this ministry. Would you like to represent us at the BRC on Saturday May 16, from 10:30 to 2 pm? Lunch is provided. For questions or to join in, contact Pastor Ken through the Church Office.

SIMPLY SUPPER...

This is it, folks! Come join us for the last "Simply Supper" and "JCC Night" of this school year. A great meal of Pizza, Chips, Corn, Pickles, Root Beer Floats, Water, Lemonade and Decaf Coffee at 5 pm. Stick around for children's learning activities and adult classes at 6 pm

We are in need of the following items for the Food Pantry... sugar, mayonnaise, pizza sauce, carrots, lotion, saltines, pancake mix. Please place items in the bins provided in the Mailroom or the Coat Closet.

THIS WEEK...

Registration for Camp Shipshewana is now open! Get a brochure in the Lobby today. Go to Brethrenretreat.org and click on "CAMPS" heading (not the drop down) then click on "Register Here" and create your account. When completed, go to "My Cart" and hit pay and enter the sponsorship code Jefferson26. Camp fees are payable to JCC who will provide half of the cost. Please pay your half to JCC before May 31st. Additional scholarships are available.

To give to scholarships, simply put your donation in the Lobby Offering Box, marked "Camp Scholarship."
